Hammarskjold's Statement Brings Storm of Protests

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold announced in the U.N. Security Council today that six associates of the slain Congo leader Patrice Lumumba had been executed in secessionist Kasai Province.

Hammarskjold's declaration touched off a storm of protests, and the 11-nation body adjourned until 3 p.m. EST to permit consultations among the shocked delegates.

Proposes Adjournment

The Soviet Union quickly blamed the secretary-general for the new political killings.

The adjournment was proposed by Liberian Delegate George Padmore and backed by Chief U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson. A meeting of Asian-African nations was called for noon to consider possible action.

Hammarskjold said he had received confirmation of the slayings from his special representative in the Congo, Indian diplomat Rajeshwar Dayal, who previously had reported fears for the safety of the pro-Lumumba group.

The slain men were among seven transferred earlier this month to Kasai Province by Congo President Joseph Kasavubu. Lumumba himself was slain after being transferred to secessionist Katanga Province by Kasavubu.

Hammarskjold protested vigorously against the latest slayings. He said the action was "humiliating and corroding to the United Nations."

The secretary-general gave no details, but said an aide of Albert Kalonji, president of the

Kennedy Maps $5.7 Billion Aid to Education Program

Includes Grants to States For Schools or Pay Boosts, Provides for Scholarships

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today proposed a $5.7 billion aid-to-education program designed to set "a new standard of excellence in education" available "to all who are willing and able to pursue it."

In a special message to Congress, the President called for:

A three-year program of outright grants of the states for use in building classrooms or raising teachers' salaries. It would provide an average of $19.75 for each child in average daily attendance in public elementary and secondary schools the first year, increasing to an average of $24.22 the third year. Total cost: $2.3 billion.

A five-year program of college scholarships, averaging $700 each with an additional $350 to colleges and universities for each scholarship winner enrolled. There would be 25,000 scholarships the first year, 37,500 the second, and 50,000 thereafter. Total cost: $377.5 million.

Continuation of the 10-year-old program of long-term, low-interest loans to colleges and universities for dormitory construction, at a rate of $250 million a year for five years. Total cost: $1.3 billion.

Establishment of a similar loan program for the construction of college classrooms, libraries, laboratories and other academic facilities, at the rate of $300 million a year for five years. Total cost: $1.5 billion.

Democrats Hit Un-American Inquiry Group

State Party Backs Nelson Demand for Committee Abolition

Post-Crescent News Service
MILWAUKEE — Abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee, investigating arm of the Congress, became official Wisconsin Democratic policy during the weekend.

Long-time target of organized liberals in the country, the committee should be abolished as Gov. Gaylord Nelson recently proposed, said a resolution adopted by the Democratic state committee.

Full Support for Nelson

The motion was offered by Howard Meister, Democratic county chairman of Milwaukee County, who noted that a similar resolution had recently been approved by his county unit and by the Young Democrats of Wisconsin. The Meister motion volunteered "complete support" for Nelson's position.

The Democratic committee action sets the stage for a contest with the Republicans of Wisconsin on the merit of the work of the committee which is now headed by a Democrat, Rep. Francis Walter of Pennsylvania.

A legislative resolution expressing confidence in the committee and hailing it as a useful instrument for the exposure of leftists and deluded collaborators is now before the state assembly and is

2 Fliers Dead In Smashup of Johnson Plane

Wreckage Found Near Texas Ranch Of Vice President

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's luxurious private plane was found smashed today in a pasture near his ranch with the pilot and co-pilot dead.

They were the only ones aboard the craft which vanished last night on a 65-mile flight from Austin to the Johnson ranch.

Johnson himself was at his ranch home near Johnson City and conducted an all-night search for the missing Convair 240.

The two-engine craft crashed in rugged hill country during pease weather.

Those killed were pilot Harold Teague and co-pilot Charles Williams, both of Austin.

The plane, named the Lucy B for one of the vice president's daughters, was a luxury craft equipped with a lounge, kitchen and conference room.

Plane in Campaign

The San Antonio News said the plane, a former commercial airliner, was owned by Johnson and a number of political supporters. It was used in last year's presidential campaign.

The vice president hurried to the scene upon being advised that the wreckage had been found.

Teague and Williams took off from Austin's Municipal Airport at 7:08 p.m. yesterday for the landing strip at the Johnson ranch, west of Austin on the Pedernales River.

Mistreated Family Has Right to Sue Police, Court Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today decided a Chicago family whose apartment was searched by police without a warrant and whose members were mistreated may sue the police for damages under the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1871.

Justice Douglas wrote the court's opinion. The decision was unanimous except that Justice Frankfurter dissented from the court's holding that the suit could not be maintained against the city of Chicago—only against the policemen.

The high court's decision overturned lower courts.

In the case, James Monroe, his wife, and their six children filed suit in U. S. District Court in Chicago for damages from the city and 13 policemen.

They complained the police broke into the Monroe apartment on Oct. 29, 1958, ransacked closets and clothing and including continued acceptance of the U. S. millions that kicked and shoved members of the family.

Minds Dad, and Lives

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Harry Stage, 7, who plunged 275 feet this undoubtedly slowed his fall. But he couldn't tread water because of his broken leg and he knows how to mind his dad pelvis.

The brown-eyed youngster with tousled blond hair is recovering in Memorial Hospital from two broken legs, a fractured pelvis and possible internal injuries.

Boy Vanishes

Harry was playing on a ranch 25 miles southwest of Phoenix Sunday while his dad, Ed, a driller, was talking to ranch owner Webb Faubion.

Climbing up on a platform, Harry jumped on a piece of plywood which concealed the pipe to an underground irrigation well.

Faubion said, "The boy just tried to slip down the pipe. No good. It was too tight."

Recalling a block and tackle at a neighbor's ranch, Faubion drove seven miles at high speed to get it. But its rope was gone.

That board helped compress laniats and hastened back. Tied together, the laniats came to more than 300 feet. The line was dropped into the pipe.

Eagerly, the boy called, "Daddy, I can hold on to it while you pull me up."

But the father wasn't going to gamble. "No," he shouted, "you put the loop under both your shoulders."

Hauled Up Slowly

Struggling in the pipe, Harry got the loop under his arms.

Spelling each other, the men pulled on the rope, hauling the boy up slowly. They topped at intervals to be sure the loop was holding.

Finally, Harry was out, put aboard a waiting ambulance and taken to the hospital.

Faubion said, "He's the bravest and luckiest boy in Arizona."

Said his dad proudly, "He always did mind good."

2 Men Killed When Car Misses Curve In Kenosha County

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A double fatality in Kenosha County early today brought to 13 resulting from accidents during the weekend to raise the state's 1961 traffic toll to 109. On this date one year ago there were 90 highway deaths.

Two employees of the American Motors Corp., at Kenosha were killed early today when an automobile missed a curve on a town road four miles north of the city, hit four trees and a utility pole.

The victims were Gene Henderson, 22, whose family lives at rural Soldiers Grove, and Kenneth Soderlin, 26, of route 4, Oshkosh.

Both men were thrown from the car and authorities were unable to determine who had been driving. Officers found wreckage 103 feet from the vehicle.

Manitowoc Man Dies

A Manitowoc man, Lester Peterman, 30, was killed Sunday night when he was thrown under his car and dragged 150 feet. Peterman's body caught on the side of the car. Forward momentum of the vehicle drew Peterman beneath the car. The sheriff's office said the auto veered into the left ditch off County Trunk A, 10 miles west of Manitowoc, slid sideways up an embankment and snapped off a utility pole.

Paper Industry Sees Gains During 1961

NEW YORK (AP)—A segment of the paper industry with perhaps the longest history is looking forward to a future of improving conditions for the industry as a whole.

Speaking as executive secretary of the Writing Paper Manufacturers Association, Morris C. Darrow said he expected "a substantial improvement" for the industry in the second half of the year.

The association recently celebrated its 100th anniversary. From various positions within the association, Darrow has analyzed the industry for 46 of those years.

Record Production

His comments were made in an interview Sunday as the industry, which last year set record highs in production but not in profits, began its annual meetings here.

Early registrations for the various committee meetings were slightly below estimates. The reason was believed to be the walk-out of flight engineers that snarled some air traffic.

Attendance, however, is expected to swell to more than 3,000 persons by Thursday.

Neenah Flier Dies, Wife Hurt in Crash

Light Plane Hits Wire, Noses Into Field Near Highway 45

NEENAH — Willis "Bud" Cross, 45, a Neenah private pilot, was killed and his wife Betty, 35, was critically injured when their light plane crashed in the Town of Vinland about 4 p. m. Sunday.

An eye-witness, Mrs. Earl Maxwell, route 1, Neenah, said she saw the plane traveling close to the ground near State 45 and County Trunk G when it pulled up sharply in an apparent attempt to miss a utility wire along the south side of the county trunk.

Mrs. Maxwell told authorities she was sitting at the kitchen table looking east out the window when she saw the plane. She said a car was traveling along the county highway at the same time. The plane, Mrs. Maxwell said, suddenly appeared to climb. She said she saw the power pole snap and heard a loud crack when the power went off. She saw the plane nose down into the ground.

Occupants of the car, which stopped, went to the plane and Mrs. Maxwell called the sheriff's office.

Authorities said Cross apparently was attempting to land his plane in a farm field behind Sparky and Viv's Tavern at 45 and County Trunk G. The landing

Airlines Start Furloughs as Strike Result

NEW YORK (AP) — Airlines caught in the widest wildcat strike in aviation history began furloughing thousands of workers today.

The four-day-old strike of flight engineers which hit the nation Friday night has cut domestic and international services of the six airlines involved to a relative trickle.

The struck lines agreed the strike has cut normal operations of four-engined jet and propeller planes by 80 to 90 per cent.

Eastern Airlines announced Sunday night it was beginning a layoff of from 6,000 to 7,000 workers in Miami.

Pan American World Airways, Trans World Airlines, National Airlines and American Airlines said they would begin furloughing a total close to 60,000 if the strike wasn't ended today.

The layoffs would affect about 20,000 employees at Trans World, the same number at American, about 15,000 at Pan American and about 3,500 at National.

Industry Report Shows Surge in Area Business

The Post-Crescent's annual Fox Cities Business and Industrial report published last Friday pointed to two well-established facts.

First, no one reading the huge three-section report could help but realize the tremendous surge of business and industry in all of the Fox Cities even in fact of economic dips in other areas.

Second, business and industry is "solid" on the Post-Crescent way of reaching more families than ever before and creating a demand for more products within those families.

The amazing amount of information contained in last Friday's Business and Industry report is either impossible or, at the least, difficult to get from any other source. May we suggest you save your copy and file it for future reference.

Nelson Indicates Sales Tax Approval

Would Back Measure if It Was for Welfare of State, Governor Says in Panel Talk

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Gov. Gaylord Nelson, who for many years has opposed a sales tax for Wisconsin residents, has indicated that he might approve such a levy if it helps the welfare of the state.

"I don't think a sales tax is necessary at this time," he said Sunday on the "Open Question" panel on WTMJ-TV, "but if the time comes to make a sacrifice and a choice for the state's welfare, educational and other needs that could be met only by such a tax, I would support it."

The governor said that he thought his tax program, presented to the Wisconsin Legislature last week, would adequately take care of the state's needs for the next biennium.

asked officials of the Unemployment Compensation Division of the Industrial Commission to go to Washington this week to confer with federal authorities on the possibility of increasing unemployment benefits.

In answer to another question Nelson said that he thought it was of income taxes, a withholding "bad policy" for the state to have plan for payment of taxes to start in 1962, forgiveness of 1961 taxes to pay their beer bills within on income up to $10,000 and 15 days and liquor bills within 30 various other levies.

Nelson, a Democrat, agreed that he might have trouble getting his program through the Republican-controlled Legislature but added that by inserting the forgiveness feature he expected it to have enough public support to bring about its enactment.

The chief executive, in his first term in office, proposed to the 1959 Legislature that it adopt a withholding program for collection of income taxes. This plan, however, did not include a forgiveness clause and would have meant double taxation in one year, because taxes would have been withheld in the same year that residents were paying the previous year's taxes. The Legislature turned down the program.

Public Support

The forgiveness clause may provide public support to the governor's present withholding program. Industry and business, however, still may be opposed to a withholding plan because of the added bookkeeping chores involved in withholding taxes at the source of income.

Nelson said that tax experts had reported that the state could get by in the next biennium with a withholding program even if the state lost more than $100 million for the forgiveness plan. Extra funds would be picked up, he said, by the withholding program and other levies.

Wisconsin cannot go into debt and it is necessary for the Legislature to levy taxes to meet expected expenses.

The governor also touched on several other subjects, including education, unemployment, corruption practices and the "beer-bill collection" law in his discussions with the newsmen and the moderator.

Nelson said he favored better utilization of school classrooms, particularly at the college level, but did not say whether he favored a three-semester program for the schools. He said that he was preparing a message to the Legislature on the subject that would be ready within a week or 10 days.

Limit On Money

In answer to another question, the governor said he favored a limit on the amount of money that any candidate for public office could spend in a campaign.

Former Truman Official Denies Link to Reds

Spruille Braden Challenges View Of One-Time Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spruille Braden has challenged testimony by a former U.S. diplomat that Braden was fired as assistant secretary of state by former President Harry S. Truman after being accused of helping Latin American Communists.

Braden, from his home in New York, offered to appear before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, where William D. Pawley testified in closed sessions last September, to deny the charges under oath. He added: "I would be glad to have the results of the combined testimony of Pawley and myself forwarded to the department of justice if, in the judgment of the senate, such disposition is warranted."

Pawley's testimony was released yesterday.

Truman's Comment

In Bermuda, where he is on vacation, Truman's only comment was "Spruille Braden did a good job."

Braden said instead of being fired, he had been praised by Truman and awarded the Medal of Freedom, the highest U. S. civilian decoration.

Pawley, Miami businessman and former ambassador to Peru and Brazil, said he received the intelligence memorandum prepared by an Army undercover agent, took it to then Atty. Gen. Tom Clark and was summoned next day to the White House to show it to Truman.

At that time in 1947, Braden was assistant secretary of state for American republic affairs.

Ambitious Man

In his testimony, Pawley pictured Braden not as a Communist but as a very ambitious man who "became involved in a program which appeared to be helpful to the Communist party in Latin America."

He said that later Braden blocked his appointment to replace Braden as Argentine ambassador and he was sent instead to Brazil.

"Pawley makes only one true statement," replied Braden, "that I blocked his appointment as ambassador to Argentina."

Use of McCoy

By Reformatory Investigated

SPARTA (AP) — The possibility that the stockade at Camp McCoy might be used to house an overflow from the Green Bay State Reformatory was investigated last week.

Mitchell Skaff, reformatory superintendent and two engineers, inspected the facilities but made no comment as to the desirability of making use of them. Military authorities, after conferring with Skaff, began a study of the compatibility of the project with Camp McCoy operations.

If a formal request for use of the quarters is made, the state will have to file its petition with Col. Willie M. Thomas, commanding officers of Camp McCoy. It will be forwarded to the Fifth Army with his recommendations.

Materials Shortage Paralyzing Many of Industries in Cuba

Once Flourishing Tire Business Prime Example of Country's Plight

HAVANA (AP) — Despite the private Cuban owners, industrial-Castro regime's boast that it has its raw material and spare parts here said. Failure to get new raw material and spare parts bargo of last October many Cuban sources before existing supplies industries are paralyzed by short-ran out is largely to blame. Among these industries are parts or operating only sporadically. Cuba's biggest glass plant—the locally, industrial sources reported former Owens Illinois Co. plant—today.

This is particularly true of engine and other factories. Informed sources say Soviet technicians have thrown up their hands at proposals that they help get the $100 million Moa Bay mining plant, an aluminum and cobalt producer once owned by Americans, back into operation.

The picture is brighter in the more vital field of sugar production. Two independent foreign experts who recently toured many sugar centers in central and eastern Cuba said they were highly impressed by the first government-handled harvest.

"A number of mills are ahead of schedule in production and, despite the use of volunteer labor in many areas, it looks like they will finish the season that way," the experts said.

Closes Tuesday

This plant will close down its production line Tuesday because of acute shortages of raw materials, said an industrial expert. "Unless some carbon black and certain other essentials are found quickly, Cuba's tire production is a dead duck," this expert said.

Sources said Cuban authorities made desperate efforts to get substantial quantities of carbon black in Canada but failed. They turned next to Europe, seeking offers on both sides of the Iron Curtain without immediate result.

Many former workers at the rubber plants have been transferred to other jobs. "We'll all be out cutting sugar cane if this keeps up," one said.

Same Picture

Washington banned U.S. exports of everything but food and medicine to Cuba four months ago in retaliation for Castro's virulent anti-United States campaign, his nationalization of almost all U.S. property in Cuba and his increasingly close ties with the Communist bloc. Cuba used to buy about 75 per cent of all its imports from the United States, or about $300 million worth a year. This has been cut to a third.

Argentina Challenge to Policy for Latin America

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The balmy midsummer air of this sun-splashed capital has a feeling of urgency.

Here, says many an Argentinian, is the real test for Latin America; the great challenge for U. S. policy. Here, they contend, is a main battlefield in the struggle between forces of constitutional democracy and the combination of Communism and Castroism.

Argentina, says its first freely elected president after the Juan Peron dictatorship, already is giving an extraordinary example to the rest of Latin America of how a people can help itself. Says slender, scholarly Arturo Frondizi: "The United States must appreciate that it is fundamental and absolutely necessary to cooperate with all Latin America in its economic and social development."

"A free and prosperous Latin America" is listed as one of the primary goals of the Kennedy administration. Argentina, still smarting under the heritage of Juan Peron's dictatorship, may provide a measure of how well U. S. cooperation with Latin America can succeed. William L. Ryan gives the background in this dispatch, one of a series he is filing from South America.)

"The important thing is for the United States to realize that it is not giving charity to 200 million Latin Americans, but making a contribution to the development of Latin America's people."

Others Can Succeed

Frondizi's minister of economy, hard-driving, dynamic Alvaro Alsogaray, gives the impression adopt austerity measures, never popular, to produce stabilization of the currency and economic recovery.

Own Welfare

The president says this recovery already has been largely achieved with some U.S. help but mainly speaks in terms which can hardly be clear to the ordinary simple workers who once thought and preserved a historic name himself. He is Alexander Hamilton, must convince the voting public Peron (wife of the dictator) was a descendant of the patriot leader.

the sacrifices have been fair and equal among all classes.

"I'm sure," the president told me, "the people of the country will understand these measures have been for their own welfare."

But I talked to some restless students about it. They were not in a mood to understand. One, representing conservative thinking among Buenos Aires University's 65,000 students, insisted that the Frondizi administration has "failed to reach the people."

For example, the student said, Economics Minister Alsogaray "represents big business and speaks in terms which can hardly be clear to the ordinary simple workers who once thought and preserved a historic name himself. He is Alexander Hamilton, must convince the voting public Peron (wife of the dictator) was a descendant of the patriot leader."

that he feels Argentina's government is involved in a race with time, to prove it can achieve what it has set out to do.

"If Argentina succeeds," he told me earnestly, "then other Latin American countries can succeed, too. If we fail, then Fidel Castro will gain significant help and far greater possibilities in Latin America."

The Argentine army, regarding itself as a sentinel over the constitution, has struck heavily against Peronistas, Communists and Castroists alike. But still the germs of Castroism became deeply imbedded. It infected many in influential places—men and women able to command followings of dissatisfied workers, restless students, resentful intellectuals, all shades of unreasoning anti-Yankees.

In the ranks of labor, former dictator Juan D. Peron left a legacy of tough-core Peronistas who now cast blank ballots in elections. An effective voting alliance of these Peronistas with the extreme left could produce disaster at the polls for the future of orderly constitutional government in this rich, key South American nation. Already there have been instances of Communist-Peronist alliances on the union labor front and for purposes of terrorism directed against the Frondizi government.

The Communists have made good use of extremist Socialists and romantic students—makers of revolution—who regard Castro as a symbol of a wave of the future.

Government Jolted

The combination demonstrated its potential by jolting the Frondizi government in recent senatorial by-elections in the federal capital. They elected to parliament 80-year-old Alfredo Palacios, for more than 50 years an ardent anti-Yankee.

Palacios seems to regard the United States, as he did when he entered the political arena in the early 1900s, as a nation dominated by super-greedy imperialists. He is worshipped by students as a founder of Argentina's university system. And students are an important political factor, since the voting age is 18.

Palacios evidently hates Communism as much as he hated Peronism. But he was attracted by Castro's Cuban regime when he visited Havana in 1959. Now in Argentina's senate he may fill the role of catalyst to rally forces of the left for united opposition to Frondizi's program to bring economic recovery out of the wreckage left by the Peron dictatorship.

It is even possible that these factors, coupled with the threat of Peronist voting strength, can force the Frondizi government into a program with a far more leftist look in an effort to persuade Argentina's workers that they have a stake in the government's future.

A major test will not be long in coming. Early in 1962 Argentina will elect half its congresses.

Much of the major legislation relating to the government's program of recovery through free private enterprise will have been pushed through by that time. But the opposition could impede its implementation.

Peron nationalized virtually every aspect of Argentina's economic life. The Frondizi government has reversed much of the nationalization and has produced a peso which has been remarkably sound and stable for more than a year.

Frondizi has been required to

Negroes Put on Bread and Water

Sit-in Prisoners Refused to Work, Placed in Solitary, Officials Say

ROCK HILL, S.C., (AP)—Eight Negroes, four of them women, Negro students jailed in a Rock Hill, S.C., sit-in demonstration have been placed on bread and water in solitary confinement for what prison officials called a sit-down and refusal to work.

Charles C. Maloney, superintendent of the nearby York County prison camp, said, "we will let them out when they show us they are ready to go to work and obey orders."

Maloney confirmed yesterday the students from Friendship College at Rock Hill had been in solitary since Friday. They were among 11 jailed recently when they refused to post $100 bail each pending appeal on conviction of trespass during a variety store sit-in.

Refused to Work

The Rev. C. A. Ivory, president of the York County chapter of the NAACP, said one student was transferred to the York County jail for making a motion toward a prison official. The others began a fast and also protested what they called overwork.

J. Ed Allen, supervisor of the prison camp, said the eight NAACP, said one student was transferred to the York County jail for making a motion toward a prison official. The others began a fast and also protested what they called overwork.

A white man and a Negro, both from Washington, D.C., remained in jail over the weekend at Rock Hill after arrest on breach of the peace charges during a brief scuffle at a Saturday demonstration. Both chose the "jail, no bail" of other demonstrators for racial equality in the south.

Youth Accused In Slaying of 13-Year-Old Girl

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A youth accused of murdering a 13-year-old Mississippi girl in a basement makes his first court appearance today.

Freddie Green, 18, who worked in the Memphis store as a porter, was on the city court docket for arraignment on charges of murder and murder in the perpetration of rape.

In a full statement before news men, Green, a Negro, admitted killing red-haired, freckle-faced Sharon Vaiden when she screamed and fought off his amorous approach.

Detective Chief Charles Young said Sharon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vaiden of near Olive Branch, Miss., was stabbed 32 times with a 4½ inch jackknife.

The slaying caused such an angry reaction at the Vaidens' hometown of Bethel, their pastor cautioned the congregation at Sunday services against "taking the law into our own hands."

"At times like this," said the Rev. Vernon Robinson, "may we not lose our heads and turn this incident into a war between the races when dozens or even hundreds could easily be killed."

It happened Saturday night when Mrs. Vaiden, in Memphis on a visit, stopped in a supermarket en route home. Sharon walked to her death when she went to a restroom for women employees in the basement.

Green was found by a Negro policeman about eight hours later, asleep in a car parked behind a friend's home.

The friend, Luby Strong Jr., 21, said Green came by about midnight looking for a place to sleep but was turned away.

"He was shaking and he didn't look himself," said Strong, who also quoted Green as saying, "I tell you, man, I'm in serious trouble."

Sen. Proxmire Offers New Antitrust Bill

Measure Would Keep Men Convicted From Holding Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., today offered legislation under which persons convicted of antitrust violations could be barred from holding corporate office for one year. "Labor union officials convicted of almost any offense worse than speeding are absolutely prohibited from holding union office for five years," he said.

"My bill would only provide for an optional one-year suspension for business executives."

Prompted by Case

Proxmire said the measure was prompted by the recent case in which 29 electrical manufacturers and 44 company executives pleaded guilty or no contest to antitrust charges of price fixing and bid rigging.

The defendants were fined nearly $2 million and seven of the company officials were sentenced to 30-day jail terms.

Proxmire's bill, an amendment to the Sherman Antitrust Act, would permit federal judges to restrain persons convicted under the anti-trust laws from serving for one year any corporation similarly convicted.

This would be an optional penalty, in addition to the fines and jail terms provided under present law, which could be imposed on application of the attorney general and a showing that persons

Kennedy Will Work For Settlement of Arab-Israeli Quarrel

LOS ANGELES (AP) — President Kennedy has committed himself to promoting a settlement of Arab - Israeli difference, Sen. Clair Engle said Sunday night. The California Democrat told the annual banquet of the Zionist Organization of America that "The United States would act promptly and decisively against any nation in the Middle East which attacks its neighbor."

Plane Crash Victims Being Flown to U. S.

BRUSSELS (AP) — The bodies of 23 victims of last week's crash of a Boeing jetliner will be flown to the United States for further attempts at identification.

FBI fingerprint experts have helped identify many of the victims, police said, but were unable to identify the 25, believed to be 24 Americans and one Canadian.

Police sources said other identification methods, such as radiography, might be used in the United States.

Among the 73 who perished in the crash were the 18 members of the U. S. figure skating team and 32 other Americans.

Proxmire said in a statement prepared for introduction of the bill that conviction under the antitrust laws "will bring no financial hardship unless executives who violate them can be deprived of their positions and their salaries."

"It is a shocking situation which permits corporation executives convicted of violating the antitrust laws in the electrical equipment companies case to draw their salaries even while serving 30-day jail sentences," he said.

Girl, 18, Named Miss Chinatown

Shanghai-Born Irene Tsu Wins Over 18 Candidates

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Shanghai-born Irene Tsu, an 18-year-old New York drama student is Miss Chinatown U.S.A.

Miss Tsu was selected by judges Saturday night from a field of 19 in a nationwide contest.

Her selection signaled the start of a celebration as the Year of the Mouse gave way to the Year of the Ox. Her reign will extend through 1961 — or 4,659 by the Chinese calendar.

Nancy Horn, 19, was named Miss Chinatown San Francisco by a nine-judge panel. Cynthia Chung Ai, 18, of Honolulu was selected as first princess and Shirley Tang, 22, Whittier, as second princess. Third princess is Ruby Moy of Washington, D.C.

Named Miss Talent for her hula-tap performance was Wendella Lai, 18, a Sacramento High School student.

The new Miss Chinatown U.S.A. likes jazz, digs beatniks, hates formality — and beauty contests. "This was my first contest and my last," the almond-eyed beauty declared.

Why? For one thing she doesn't feel she'll have time for such things. She plans to enter the University of Southern California in September as a mathematics major.

And she dislikes the strict chaperonage. She said she hasn't had a moment to herself since coming to San Francisco.

Miss Tsu and her family came to the United States from Formosa four years ago. Her father fled Shanghai in 1948 with his family.

"I was glad to come to this country. I enjoy the informality here," Miss Tsu said.

CAN CHIROPRACTIC CURE ME?

This question is asked constantly by new patients in consulting their chiropractor. It is exceedingly difficult to arrive at a justifiable answer to the above question. However, a few general statements may satisfactorily answer this question. The following factors generally indicate the effectiveness of Chiropractic in relationship to the condition of the patient.

1. Age of the patient. As a general rule it can be said that the younger the patient, the greater the opportunity for recovery.
2. Duration and severity of the disease. The longer a disease has been present and the more severe it has been, the longer it will take to obtain results.
3. The vitality of the patient. If a person is constitutionally weak, naturally, it subtracts from a favorable outcome.
4. Ability of the Chiropractor to correctly analyze the case, determine the vertebral misalignment, and his ability to deliver a proper adjustment. If the Chiropractor is proficient the prognosis is favorable.
5. Lastly and most important of all is the cooperation of the patient. Research data has proven time and time again the most important point in regaining health through Chiropractic is the patient's cooperation with his Chiropractor.

Your family Chiropractor will be happy to evaluate your state of health and advise you accordingly.

'Phun in the Phonebooks' Leads Charlie in Merry Name Research

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

PHUN IN THE PHONEBOOKS: Someone has said that telephone books have a lot of characters, but not much of a plot. Nevertheless, a cursory search through the phone books of Appleton and Green Bay has afforded me a kind of a game which ought to be a lot of fun.

Wouldn't it be fun to introduce — for example — Alma Hart of Neenah to Fred Valentine of Little Suamico?

And what pleasure might come to a fellow if he happened to run into two special people, like Byron Deadman of Green Bay and Joseph Graves of Appleton? Or Leo Fuerst of Appleton and Gerald Last of Green Bay?

It would be thrilling to believe that Mr. Gordon Fish of Appleton is a good friend to Richard Pike of Green Bay and of Emery Waters of Menasha.

And I would dearly like to have the information that a group of friends went visiting one night and consisted of Frank Drinks, Dan Dryer, Charles DeWet, all of Appleton, and Earl Tippler of Menasha, along with Frederick Never of Kimberly.

It would be a happy thing, indeed, to be able to introduce Donal Yingling of Kaukauna to Richard Bell of Green Bay, or to start a long-standing friendship between August Apple and Martin Jooss, both of Appleton.

Musical, Too

Should not Carl Chopin of Kaukauna be a likely candidate for a long musical friendship with George Tenor of Green Bay?

And, supposing it is true that opposites attract, then wouldn't it be reasonable to wish to introduce Gerald Cops to John Robbers, both of Appleton?

Or, say, Charles Haire of Neenah to Clifford Barber of Green Bay?

I have a friend in DePere, Leo Dillon, but I do not know if he knows Esther Pickles of Appleton, though I would like to think that he did.

Nor do I know if C. H. Winn of Kaukauna is fortunate enough to be friends with Cletus Looze of Green Bay, but it would be nice if such a thing came to pass.

Wooden-Schuh?

I would like William Wooden of Appleton to know and to like Raymond Schuh of Green Bay, just as it would be pleasant to know Harry Stuck of Medina was friends with Abe Stone of Neenah. Also, I would be happy to know that Alvin Winter of Appleton happened to know Violet Summer of Green Bay.

Bernard Bunn of Appleton

ton, this is Pat Lyons of Neenah."

Or, "Mary Deer of Green Bay, this is Dwain Hunter of Appleton."

Or, "George Hart of Appleton, this is Edward Payne of Green Bay."

In fact, we of these communities surely go well one with another; the little game could go on and on.

Science at Work Side Force Develops To Make Ball Curve

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Curve balls, thunder, copper atoms and Spring trouble coming are subjects for science at work:

Curve Ball

What makes a spinning ball—in baseball, table tennis or golf—curve?

A side force, something like a cross wind, develops to push the ball aside, scientists reported at the American Physical Society meeting.

A baseball pitched at moderate speed, spinning 30 revolutions a second, can move up to 1½ feet off course by the time it crosses the plate. A slow pitch curves more than a fast one, since it spends more time curving.

Experts say there is scientific evidence for a sharp-breaking pitch—a baseball taking a sudden change of direction.

Measure An Atom

Copper atoms behave as if they were tiny round balls—so small it would take 99½ million of them lined up to make an inch.

How do physicists know? They use an electric plating device to measure the amount of charge it takes to deposit a certain amount of copper on an electrode.

If you buy a pound of copper, they say, you are buying 4,300,23 zeros) copper atoms.

Anatomy of Thunder

Why does thunder rumble when heard from a distance?

The rumble is partially an echo of the original thunder clap, reflected back from a layer of ice, water and water vapor in the thundercloud itself, a researcher reports.

And what causes the thunder claps heard at short distances? The branching of a lightning bolt. Each point of the branch produces a single explosion heard as a thunderclap.

Bad News

Trouble is gathering underneath all that winter snow. Crab grass sprouts better after a hard winter.

Somehow the severe frost seems to add extra zip to the germination of crab grass seeds, report horticulturists for the Dow Chemical Co. Crab grass dies every year, but leaves an enormous crop of seeds to sprout in the spring. The seeds also benefit from the frost break-up of the soil and the added moisture from heavy snows. Crab grass killers prevent new seeds from germinating.

Smallest Package

Capsules just 1-25,000th of an inch in diameter have been made by National Cash Register Co.

The tiny plastic-coated packages are about as big as one of the smaller bacteria.

One use for the tiny plastic capsules is as a replacement for carbon paper. A colorless dye is bound up in small plastic packages. A solution of capsules is used to coat a sheet of copy paper with an invisible film. When a typewriter of pencil crushes a number of the capsules, the dye is released, reacting with another chemical to create color and leave a visible mark or letter on the paper.

Pushing People Around

Mr. Khrushchev's worldwide bullying, shouting, stomping and otherwise abusing people generally appears to be contagious. Recently some people who might be expected to be very mild mannered and extremely patient have started to inflict outrageous punishments upon others who have been only mildly offensive. Not long ago, for example, Harold Roth, director of the East Orange, N. J. library, secured warrants for the arrest of 14 persons who had failed to return overdue books.

These people were arrested at midnight or later. All were taken down to the city jail where, as one of the victims put it, they "slammed us into a cell." Later they were allowed one phone call to make the $100 bail. It is true of course that these 14 unfortunates had borrowed books from the library, they had kept them when they were long overdue and they had ignored notices to return them but their treatment was much more severe than imposed upon others guilty of more unsocial acts. For instance, one of the book borrowers said he had been in the cell from midnight until about 3 a.m. but another fellow was put in jail for assault and battery and his bail was only $25.

The punishment of the borrowers perhaps was made harder to bear by the fact that everyone recognizes the library as a center of culture and a place where one could expect to receive the most polite and considerate treatment.

Even so we doubt if it was any more infuriating than the act of the management of the Edgebrook Gardens apartment building in North White Plains, N. Y.

New York has had a tremendously heavy fall of snow this year. The streets now are cluttered with drifts and in some areas there is mud and dirt. Consequently the dwellers of the Edgebrook apartment house have been leaving their overshoes and their rubbers in the hallway of this huge co-operative project. They had been warned against cluttering up the hallway but they no doubt felt that leaving a pair of snowboots in front of an apartment door was scarcely in the field of cluttering. Imagine their anger when they discovered that during the night the janitors had gone about, collected all the overshoes and rubbers, and deposited them in one heap in the basement. Imagine the difficulty of finding your boots in such a miscellaneous pile. Of course the more the pile was searched and sorted through the more difficult became the business of finding even a pair of rubbers.

Somehow we find it difficult to go along with apartment manager Joseph Margulis who justified this uncivilized act by saying, "If we let residents keep rubbers in the halls, then they also want to keep sleds, cartons, skis, beach chairs, tricycles, milk bottles and other objects there. We are much more in sympathy with Mrs. Irving Monk, one of the apartment occupants who said, "The very idea of having one's wearing apparel snatched from one's door is appalling. Leaving boots and rubbers outside a door is a time-honored tradition in every dwelling, farmhouse and mansion in the world."

Only the hideous example of Mr. Khrushchev could have led librarians and apartment managers into such foolish pathways.

Four-Year Terms for State Officers

Some time during the next two years people of Wisconsin probably will have to make up their minds on the proposal to increase the terms of the principal state officers from two to four years. Resolutions offered in the legislature by Sen. Robert Knowles (R-New Richmond) would lengthen the terms of office of the governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general and the state treasurer, effective with the terms beginning in 1967.

It appears that both parties now are committed to 4-year terms for these offices. The senate judiciary committee has approved the resolutions offered by Sen. Knowles. However, another set of resolutions introduced by Sen. Richard Zaborski (D-Milwaukee) and Howard Cameron (D-Rice Lake) also provide for 4-year terms. The only difference in the proposals is that the Knowles resolution would start the terms of office during a non-presidential election year whereas the resolutions offered by the Democratic senators would start the term in a presidential year.

From the politician's point of view the difference is one of getting votes. The Democrats apparently think they have the best chance in a presidential year whereas the Republicans appear to see an advantage in the off year. From the public point of view, however, the off year appears more appropriate since the election machinery might tend to get rusty if we had only one big election every four years instead of every two years as at present.

The Right of Revolution

An instructor at the University of Chicago, George Anastaplo, has managed to get his law suit to the United States Supreme Court and, although he has not been admitted to the bar, he is arguing his own case. A federal statute gives every citizen that right and Mr. Anastaplo's failure to be accepted by the Illinois bar is the reason for the controversy.

Mr. Anastaplo graduated with distinction from the University of Chicago Law School ten years ago. But when he applied for bar admittance he attached a statement saying that he believed in the right of the people to revolt against oppression. The officials decided they had better investigate the new applicant so they asked him whether he was a member of the Communist party, the Ku Klux Klan or the Silver Shirts. Mr. Anastaplo contended it was none of their affair since there was no evidence to suggest that he was. The state bar turned him down and the Illinois Supreme Court ruled against him by a vote of 4-3.

Mr. Anastaplo insists that he believes in the right of revolution, as defined in the Declaration of Independence "if at some time the members of this court were to become so corrupted, so perverted that the Constitution was destroyed. A court which, say, Hitler dominated would deserve no respect." Asking him questions about despicable membership without any evidence is about the same as asking whether he beats his wife, puts ground glass in his children's sugar or starves his cat.

Mr. Anastaplo is on sound ground in his belief in the right of revolution as discussed in the Declaration of Independence, a document, however, which has no statutory or judicial authority in the United States. In practical fact the right of revolution was won in the 18th century because our military forces beat the British but it was lost in the 19th century when the Confederacy was defeated. The assistant attorney general in Illinois has argued that, since the Supreme Court has upheld conviction of Communist party members for subversive speech, "it follows automatically that a question about such affiliation is material." The real matter, he said, is whether or not an admitted Communist party member should be accepted by the state bar.

Undoubtedly the Supreme Court will uphold Mr. Anastaplo's belief in the right of revolution. Its decision as to the authority of the state bar to ask and require certain answers for membership will depend more upon the court's split on state and organizational authorities.

A little revolt may not be good for every generation as Thomas Jefferson suggested. But it probably is a wholesome thing for the Illinois bar to face the foolishness of withholding admittance to a man who states what he believes and hand it out to those who may just casually fit the pattern.

So of Course He Got Stuck In Manhole

From The Fort Worth Star Telegram

It finally has been made clear why that Chicago fellow got stuck in a manhole the other day. There was some mystery surrounding this key aspect of an otherwise well-detailed human interest story.

The chap was over six feet tall and weighed only 185, and anyone of those proportions should have no trouble getting in and out of manholes without becoming lodged.

The man, Clinton Weaver, 59, drew the explanation from the city's water distribution division when he explained to the police and firemen who rescued him—by digging up part of a sidewalk and taking him to a hospital to have the rim removed from his midsection—why he was crawling through the manhole in the first place. Water pipes in his

Commends Mayor, Council for Doing Something About Parking

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter that was sent to the mayor and the common council.

Robert Ballou Jr.

Hon. Clarence Mitchell, Mayor City of Appleton Dear Sir:

I must commend you, the public safety committee, and the entire council on the action that has been taken to elevate (sic) the parking situation in downtown Appleton. You have all shown a desire to do something about a problem that was beginning to strangle the downtown area.

I also think the public safety committee used good judgement in submitting a copy of the Barton street plan to the American Automobile Association for study. Perhaps they will come up with some very helpful suggestions.

I do wish something could be done to help traffic flow in Appleton. To a great extent it is the driver himself who slows up traffic by taking up two lines at an intersection or making a right turn from the left turn lane.

Perhaps we need a little education in driving downtown. Maybe the police department could sponsor a safe driving campaign and give out a few tickets to these very discourteous drivers.

Also something could be done to mark traffic lanes in the streets. Right turn, left turn, and thru lanes can be painted on the streets so they last all year, or they can be painted twice a year. (I am enclosing a photo from a Chicago newspaper showing how clearly marked the traffic lanes are.) Chicago has had a lot more snow and ice this winter than we have had. I don't see how winter weather can be an excuse for poorly marked traffic lanes. Perhaps the public safety committee should check into various kinds of materials for marking lanes. If the streets were marked and then enforced by the police, driving would be much easier.

I also hope that someday the police will start enforcing the "don't walk" lights on College Avenue. It seems like such a waste of money to see people walking against them. I understand an ordinance has been drafted. If it isn't on the books yet, let's get it there, and then start enforcing it.

Looking back over the past three months I think we have come a long way in our thinking about parking and traffic. I think the people of Appleton were so mad during the Christmas season at the lack of parking in downtown Appleton that they spoke so they were heard.

I think now if we can correct some faults in traffic flow we will be well on our way to a bigger and more prosperous downtown Appleton. We must always remember that streets were intended to move traffic on—not park cars on.

Looking Backward

Appleton to Have Woolen Factory

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Feb. 23, 1861.

It affords us great satisfaction to be able to announce that machinery worth $6,000 has been purchased for the establishment of a Woolen Factory at Appleton, and that immediate steps will be taken for the erection of the necessary building.

The location selected is immediately below and adjoining the Second Ward River Bridge (Onesida St. bridge), near the Outagamie Flouring Mill. The building will be put up with all possible dispatch and it is expected that the Factory will get into operation early in the summer.

This will open up a new and desirable business in our young and thriving city and will stimulate our Farmers to embark largely in Wool Growing.

Now who will establish an Oil Mill, a very profitable business?

New Strategy Seen In Nelson Tax Plan

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — The rationale of Gov. Nelson's tax withholding proposal has abruptly changed.

Two years ago it was widely hailed as a means of catching up the tax cheats and the delinquents, and of extending the tax collector's arm across the state lines to embrace those who don't live in Wisconsin but who earn wages and salaries here. It was a question of tax collection efficiency then. Today the governor is appealing to the convenience of the taxpayer himself, and his guess that for most of the income dues - payers within his constituency the obligation to pay in cash for taxes due on last year's earnings is a nuisance at best, an acute hardship at worst.

Wyngaard

To make an even more direct appeal to the voter, who in turn is expected to turn the heat upon his possibly reluctant Republican legislator, the governor holds out the extravagantly attractive bait of the remission of one year's taxes altogether. It is a savory program politically, whatever else might be said about it.

ONE OBJECTION?

The governor told the legislature that the "double taxation" feature of his original 1959 withholding plan was the one serious obstacle and objection he had encountered. The reference was to the fact that his original bill would have had the effect of requiring the individual to pay 1959 taxes, for example, at the same time that he was required to start paying 1960 taxes on a current basis. Now the governor offers one whole year of "forgiveness" to meet that objection, and as a means of sweetening his proposal for higher rates in the next year.

It may be that the governor heard only that objection in political terms, but there are many other objections that have been offered and that surely will be offered again. There are businessmen who resent the idea that they should be forced to become unpaid tax collectors. There are many persons who have deep philosophic doubts about disguising the effect of tax burdens through weekly exactions of small amounts. There are doubts about the ethical merit of forcing collections from non-residents who happen to work in Wisconsin, but who are not eligible for most of the public services for which their taxes will be collected.

There also may be objections to the selectivity of the withholding method. The business corporation would be exempt, as would the farmer. The forgiveness feature is not proposed across the board. Some taxpayers would be defined as less equal than others—those who are already paying at the highest rates.

THE BASIS

But the most powerful reservations about withholding relate to the chances for ultimate tax reform in Wisconsin.

Wisconsin is competing, in "tax climate" terms, with a majority of sales tax states, and a near-majority of states with income and sales taxes in combination. There had been some reason to hope that Wisconsin was moving in a direction of balance with those other jurisdictions. Gov. Nelson the other day conceded that the day may very well come — but he doesn't propose to be in the executive office when it does.

With a withholding tax as a political sedative, the goal of such tax reform may be forever lost. It will be a simple matter to raise the average voter's weekly deduction, at $2.50 or thereabouts, to $2.75 or $3. The experience of federal withholding richly shows that the average salary earner is relatively impervious to the precise details of his tax liability. The man who does the tax work for this chronicler says the average federal withholding taxpayer is more attentive to possible refunds than to the total weight of his tax contribution.

These and other objections will be in the political battle in the legislature, notwithstanding the governor's declaration that he has removed the "one serious" objection with his forgiveness maneuver.

Importance of Tickle Tests Undetermined

From The Huron (S.C.) Daily Plainsman

"Tickle tests" made in a hospital recently by medical science researchers disclosed that men and women are about equally ticklish. The research team also reported that a very ticklish person is unusually emotional.

There must be profound significance lurking in this somewhere. Had the tests shown that women, say, were markedly more ticklish than men, something could have been made of that. Had the results been vice versa, even more could have been made of it.

As it is, we'll have to be content with reporting the tests and noting that some day the true import of this data will be known. Meanwhile, it seems a pity the researchers made no suggestion about how to avoid getting into ticklish situations.

Johnson Helping Kennedy Quietly

Takes Great Pains Not to Overshadow Staunch Partner

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE

WASHINGTON— Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson is carrying on wide and willing shoulders the weight of two wholly different kinds which require the most delicate sense of balance.

He is determined to do his utmost to support the policies and purposes — and person — of his chief, President John F. Kennedy. To those who know him well there can be no possible doubt of the total dedication the Texan is putting into this project.

At the same time, he is taking endless pains to avoid any suggestion of a suspicion that in these efforts—which at times unavoidably will cause him to take fairly prominent public positions—he is attempting in any way to cast a shadow as long, or even nearly as long, as that of the president.

To make it abundantly clear to his own closest associates that he means only to serve—and never to rival—the President, Mr. Johnson has specifically instructed his staff on this point: his role is always to be that of “an understudy to the President.”

He has pointed out to his people that though he and the President were in great rivalry only last summer for the presidential nomination itself, this was only an episode of the past having no meaning now.

Roles Change

They have been told with great force that JFK and LBJ are now wholly together, in purpose and in the human sense, as actually nearly all during their earlier careers they had been essentially together in their views of government's proper role.

(Mr. Johnson is not now and never was more “conservative” than the President, except possibly on a single issue—civil rights. There his southern geography inevitably clashed with the northern geography of Mr. Kennedy.)

The vice-president was once Mr. Kennedy's senior, as Democratic Senate leader while the President was a rather junior member there. Now he is making it crystal clear that he is definitely the President's junior and is wholly content with that position.

Moreover, Mr. Johnson is genuinely grateful for an unbroken series of generous acts toward him by the President. No vice-president before in history — not even Richard Nixon in the Eisenhower years — has been brought so intimately and so continuously into collaboration at every step with his President.

Predictions Wrong

The more Mr. Johnson has seen of Mr. Kennedy in action at the White House, the more his respect and liking for the President have risen.

The President, in his side, is magnanimous in his dealings with the vice-president — in large ways and in small. In summary, then, the approaching first-month anniversary of the new administration draws near without a sign of that “rift” between these two young, powerful and candidly ambitious men which many had predicted and for which many more had hoped.

Johnson wherever possible is working in semi-anonymity for presidential enterprises. He is no shrinking violet. He is simply aware that to allow the spotlight to fall much upon himself would injure that work and thus the administration itself. And it would give opportunity to Johnson detractors to carry tales to the White House that “Lyndon is flexing his muscles.”

Deeply Private

At times, therefore, when duty requires muscle-flexing — as for example to smooth presidential problems in Congress — he is muscle-flexing, all right, but only in a deeply private way.

The process requires a subtle skill. The problem is how to help — but always without seeming to help too visibly, and without opening any doors to those who simply cannot believe that two such men could, after their own battles were over, fight together in mutual respect — and in mutual affection.

Never before had any President entered office with a vice-president who had so strongly challenged him for that very post. But whatever you may think of the new administration, one thing is sure: the strength of this duo resides in the very fact that in the recent past each was so strong in his own right. It is, in political savvy, a “learn” indeed.

Increased Sales Of E and H Bonds For Month Noted

January Series E and H bond sales in Wisconsin were the highest in the state for that month since 1957, the treasury department reported.

Sales for January totaled $11,045,236, or 10.7 per cent of the 1961 goal.

Calumet County ranked eighth in the state in percentages of goal sold, with sales of $31,320, or 15 per cent of the county goal. Other county sales totals are Outagamie, $173,840, or 8.9 per cent; Waupaca, $47,788, or 8.4 per cent, and Winnebago, $321,678, or 12.8 per cent.

National Sales totaled $456 million, that is 8 per cent above January, 1960. An all-time national high of savings bonds outstanding, totalling $43.3 billion, also was set in January.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age. Lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Sagging bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLON-AID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLON-AID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLON-AID's unequalled reboiling action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLON-AID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

Replacements Boost Economy

BY SYLVIA PORTER

For the first time since we built a result of the depression in the our house in the country on the 1930s and World War II in the eve of the Korean war in 1950, we 1940s.

Porter

are in the market in a big way for replacements
In the kitchen
there are major purchases I can no longer duck repairing the appliances of again doesn't make sense In the cellar, my husband is holding long conferences with experts who know about the expensive things that go into cellars In the living room and bedrooms the need for new furniture becomes glaringly obvious in the revealing sun of a winter noon.

We are re-entering the market for durable goods after a long interval. We soon will be shifting back to buying big-ticket items for the simple reason that we need them to replace items we have.
Millions of Others
What we are about to do I submit, millions of other middle income families will be doing too on a rising scale as the goods they bought in the earlier postwar years get old, tired, rusty.

Replacement demand is going to emerge as one of the great stimulants to the vitally important durable goods market in our nation as this decade wears on.

Buying to replace an appliance,
a car, a couch—and a house—you now own is going to represent an increasing percentage of our total spending in coming years, to be a truly crucial factor in expanding checks, spurring our rate of growth.

One Expert Agrees

While few commentators are as yet even touching on this point, one nationally respected economist who also believes strongly in the rising significance of replacement demand is William F. Butler, vice president of New York's Chase Manhattan bank.

Butler has, in fact been working out estimates of the stupendous size of replacement buying in this decade thinks that this is one "underlying factor swinging to the side of supporting a quickened rate of economic growth." Let's review from one to three years in the for an instant the way you and I have been living and buying in the postwar period and you'll get the full meaning of this.

From the end of World War II through 1955—a full decade—the American economy soared from boom to boom under the stimulus of our vast demands for housing appliances, furniture, cars, etc.
The upsurge was powered by two forces. First, all of us were busy for every type of product that we needed.

Second, and more important, we were in a hurry to replace what we had lost or worn out. The result was a massive backlog of replacement demand that has been building up ever since.

Now replacement demands are really on their way up. Butler estimated total replacement requirements, at $60.6 billion in 1960, will be up to $68.4 billion in 1963, up to $70.8 billion in 1964, up to $73.5 billion in 1965. These estimates are in 1947-49 dollars—meaning the totals will be billions bigger if figured in dollars of today's buying power.

The replacement market for autos alone is calculated at $12.3 billion in 1965, for other consumer durables, at $23.4 billion; for housing, at $9.9 billion; for business plant and equipment, at $27.9 billion.

If yours is a home built, bought or furnished before 1955, your family is likely to be one of America's "hidden" sources of boom by 1965.
And in the next few years, the other two underlying forces will be shifting back to the favorable aides as well—adding mightily to our chances for a fully prosperous economy.

Plot to Kill Lincoln Makes Excellent TV

Evidence Pointing to Treason in Cabinet Skillfully Portrayed

AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Dale Wasserman's "The Lincoln Murder Case" presented Saturday night on CBS was a meticulously constructed, carefully documented and provocative television program. In its subject matter, it was a shocker.

The difficult job of selecting and presenting in dramatic form some of the mass of evidence pointing to a treasonable conspiracy in Lincoln's Cabinet, was skillfully knitted into a gripping whole. Wasserman handled it by having Alexander Scourby, as a sort of prosecutor, narrate and illustrate the assassination plot by word, maps and physical evidence. Then the key moments in the plot and its aftermath were dramatized.

The windup, of course, had to be weak. After Wasserman had made his case and his point—that many people besides John Wilkes Booth knew about the plot to kill Lincoln—there could be no climax because the author believes somebody got away with murder. All he could do to end the show was to point out "the final irony: Only the man they killed lives on."

It was a stimulating and absorbing program and grand television.

Tavern Owner Fined For Allowing Young Girl to Loiter

WAUPACA — Nell Madison, route 3, Waupaca, operator of Club 22, was fined $50 for allowing a minor to loiter in her tavern when she was arraigned Saturday before a Police Justice George Whalen.

The sheriff's department said a 17-year-old girl was frequenting the tavern.

American Films Have Competition in Japan

Improved Native Movie Industry, Television Sets Biggest Threats

BY BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
TOKYO (AP)—American movies are fighting for a market in Japan, but are faced with stiff competition, including that old devil TV.

Japan used to be happy hunting grounds for Hollywood films. No more. Five years ago, American film companies were drawing $22 million a year from the Japanese market. Today that figure is cut in half.

What has happened?

The most obvious reason for the decline is the adversary of American films at home — television. More than 5 million TV sets are owned by this population of 90 millions. You see the forked antennae rising from the fishing villages, farm communities, all over.

The Japanese theater business is faced with the same problem. American movie men had six years ago the public's fascination with the home screen. The number of theater admissions dropped in 1960 for the first time in recent history. Revenue was up, but only because of raised admission prices.

Native Films Improve
Besides TV, American movies have faced big problems:

1. The flowering of the Japanese film industry. The quality of native films has improved tremendously in the past decade. Japan produced about 500 feature films last year, compared to 120 made in Hollywood.

2. The booming economy. You see signs of prosperity everywhere. As in the United States, movies were once the main diversion of the general public. But good times bring other uses for spare time and money.

Skating is having a boom in Japan, as is golf. Ice skating is the teen-age rage. The dating crowd flocks to coffee shops, where you can hear everything from rock 'n'

Broadway Has Its Troubles With Russia

NEW YORK (AP)—Broadway is having its own Russian problem this season.

The Muscovite scene was explored for comic effect recently in "Julia, Jake and Uncle Joe." Undismayed by that setback, another team of laugh seekers now tries flipping back the pages of history for humor in "Once There Was a Russian."

This item, which trundled onto the Music Box stage Saturday night, is better than its predecessor, but still creates no Volga torrent of mirth.

Sam Spewack, veteran of many a White Way frolic, pens a parable of how John Paul Jones was gulled by Catherine the Great and her sometimes minister, Prince Potemkin, in 1787 battling with Turkey.

Not so Funny
The script tries for a lot of witty then-now parallels, with dubious result.

Involved as principals are Albert Salmi, as the naval hero; Francoise Rosay, an estimable lady of the French theater, as the empress; and Walter Matthau, the scheming politician. Each seems misplaced and abashed in the charade, nor are their efforts noticeably enhanced by the fourth featured performer, Julie Newmar.

"Once There was a Russian" dore, 23, 2420 S. Madison St. Appearances promises to lift to comic heights, but most of the time remains earthbound.

French, Italian Designers Show View of Spring, Summer Styles

Large Low-Set Pockets Feature this cocktail coat of fuchsia red heavy silk, the creation of Carosa of Rome. It was among the spring and summer fashions recently shown by Italian couturiers at Florence. Below is a two-piece suit from Paris. Saddle stitching is the distinctive note of the dark blue wool designed by Chanel. The bow is in white silk.

Now That All the Major houses have introduced their new spring lines, style conscious women are anxious to see what designers have in store for them. Shown here are previews of fashions, or their modifications, which will be seen in the stores during the next few months. The creations come from the board of Chanel of Paris. Marucelli of Rome, Veneziani of Milan and Carosa of Rome.

A Two Piece Suit in white and beige wool, trimmed with red and blue wool braid, is this offering from Chanel's collection. The buttons are gold. Shown at left is a red and white striped silk afternoon dress featuring a chasuble-like bodice, with hat to match. Marucelli of Rome is the author of this diagonally cut and draped design. Mon Amour is the name given the high-waisted, draped cocktail dress pictured at left, below. Made of vari-colored silk organdy, the gown was designed by Veneziani of Milan and displayed at a recent showing of spring and summer fashions.

attach herself to you permanently. The only good thing between your mother and you is distance. Keep it that way.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Why do I always wish that I had not said what I did — after it's too late? It doesn't matter whether it's a casual conversation over the back fence or a social function with several people listening. After I've spoken and think over what I've said (often many hours later) I realize I could have said it better — or worse yet — I ought not to have said it at all. Is there something wrong with me?—Inferiority Complex

Dear Complex: Your feelings of insecurity make you inordinately self-critical. It may be a comfort to know that every living man, woman and child experiences these same feelings from time to time.

Relax, talk sense, and don't speak merely to combat the silence. Remember, a word once uttered, is like a dollar spent. It's gone.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Your Problems Wife Keeps Teasing Husband In Line With Sunday Punch

BY ANN LANDERS
DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am bored with your repeated admonition that married people must never strike one another no matter how angry or frustrated they become. May I tell you that I learned from experience that the only way to get my husband in line is to smack him one right square in the mouth? He's one of those guys who likes to tease, and he doesn't know when to quit. When I reach the limit to my patience I just swing from the floor and let him have it. It works like magic. He doesn't get smart with me for weeks after that.

So why don't you mind your own business? All things are not good for all people. — Solved Without Help

Dear Solved: You bet all things are not good for all people. Most men would respond to a smack in the mouth quite differently. You could find yourself picking teeth up off the floor.

If this system works for you then it's all right with me. But people who belt each other around, so far as I am concerned, are savages. I hold no brief for physical violence.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm another one who has read your column for years and never thought I'd be asking for help. I'm 19, well-employed, female and quite content. When I was an infant my mother left my father and me for another man. Dad raised me as best he could. I spent several years with aunts and uncles and housekeepers. Three years ago Dad married a lovely woman who is giving him real happiness.

My mother has phoned me four times in the last three years. She says she would love to see me.

and I have agreed, but she has never shown up. My aunts have told me that she is a heavy drinker and a tramp. I think about Mother more and more and would like to tell her off. I have no love or respect for her and I'd like her to know it.

I could locate her easily through my aunts. I think I have this coming. Do you agree?—Hope

Dear Hope: No. You would accomplish nothing constructive by telling her off. Why risk the guilt that might result from such a meeting, to say nothing of the possibility that she might

Democrats True to Symbolic Donkey

Given Vote of Confidence by State Committee at Milwaukee

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MILWAUKEE — The historic symbol of the donkey for the Democratic party of America is good enough for the Wisconsin Democrats, the Democratic state committee decided here.

The Democratic ruling group tabled with some impatience a proposed resolution written by Prof. W. G. Rice, University of Wisconsin law School liberal, suggesting a national contest to find a new and more suitable emblem for the party.

"Leave the donkey alone," growled Harvey Kitzman, leading spokesman of organized labor on the committee, before the suggestion was voted down.

Milo Singler, Shiocton farmer and unsuccessful Democratic candidate for congressman in the eighth district, is being considered for a national government patronage appointment, according to party leaders. If Singler gets a job it will be in one of the federal government agricultural services, it is said.

Historically Republican Waukegan county is settling some kind of a Democratic party membership record this year. State Party Chairman Patrick J. Lucey reported with some astonishment. The county party now has more than 700 paid - up members, and is leading by a considerable margin most of the larger counties of the state, including those that show Democratic voting majorities in the elections. The party has a 1961 goal of 45,000 Wisconsin paid - up members.

Democratic women of the sixth and eighth congressional districts in the Fox River Valley will organize caravans to Madison to observe the legislature and the state government in the spring, reported Mrs. Marguerite Benson, state party vice-chairman.

The Democratic committee authorized Chairman Lucey to hire an almost complete complement of new state headquarters employees, to replace others who have resigned. Principal new party headquarters workers will be Ronald Zwadzich, a Milwaukee native who will be executive director, and James Buckley of Waukegan, who will be a field man specializing in building up local organizations. Both are college trained. Zwadzich has a master's degree in political science and attracted the notice of the party powers a few years ago when he prepared a college thesis on the problems of the Wisconsin Democrats in recruiting the farm vote.

Neenah police said they received the call from the county police to send the Schindler ambulance and a fire truck. Although it is in operating condition, the Neenah ambulance was not requested, Neenah firemen said.

May Have Seen Friend
Cross, dispatcher at Kamp over the field before landing. The plane had a 90 mile an hour cruising speed and usually Taylorcraft two-seater plane lands at about 60 miles an hour, the pilots stated.

Fire Truck Stands By
The fire truck of the joint Neenah-Menasha townships department was sent to the scene at 4:08 p.m. Sunday but there was no fire and the firemen stood by and aided the injured Mrs. Cross, helping county police and roping off the area. One of the firemen, Leslie Shoman, received a cut under the eye while working at the scene.

Arnold "Sparky" Meyer, co-owner of the tavern, is a private pilot and said planes often land the crash and directed the men in the field. Cross was headed at the scene. The plane ended up south. County police thought he could have been blinded by the afternoon sun bouncing off the ice-coated field.

Pilots said Cross may have come in too low and hit the wires of Valley Airways since 1946.

gear evidently struck the utility line.

The Cross' lived at 682 Reed St., Neenah.

Both occupants were pinned in the wreckage. Power in the immediate area was disrupted for several hours.

Mrs. Cross received compound fractures of the left leg, multiple fractures of the right leg and a possible skull fracture. She was taken to Theda Clark Hospital in the Schindler ambulance and Cross was pronounced dead at the scene. Mrs. Cross was admitted to the hospital at 5 p.m.

Speed Limits

Jack Schindler, operator of the ambulance service, said the ambulance was dispatched immediately from its Broad Street location in Menasha. He said it took about 20 minutes to reach the scene. His ambulance attendants told him they reached the hospital at 4:45 p.m., he said. He thought the call had been received about 4:15 p.m.

Schindler added that his men had been instructed to observe all speed limits. They had the red light flashing and siren sounding on their way to the accident, he said.

Neenah police said they received the call from the county police to send the Schindler ambulance and a fire truck. Although it is in operating condition, the Neenah ambulance was not requested, Neenah firemen said.

Quarter-Inch Glaze Is Heaviest Since Storm in February, 1956

The heaviest ice glaze in five years hit the Fox Cities area Saturday, causing problems for motorists, pedestrians and utilities. Appleton's street department performed its first major snow removal operation of the season lines, streets, sidewalks and just over the weekend, and it was a about everything else outside was humdinger because ice was froz the heaviest since a storm on Feb. 24, 1956, although a half dozen milder ice storms occur in a normal winter. Saturday, and freezing rain and snow continued until 8:30 p.m. The 2 inches of snow on top of ice was equal to .43 inch melted precipitation. Thirty-seven inches of snow had fallen in the Fox Cities at this time last year, but only 10 inches now.

Heavy Glazing
Most motorists found that turning on the car heater and chipping the windshield ice was the best way to combat the heavy glazing. Many doors were frozen shut.

Railroad switches froze and airport runways were icy, but planes, buses and trains continued to run with little or no delay.

Shiocton Dairy Farmer Wins State Jaycee Rural Award

CHIPPEWA FALLS — Clifford Conradt, 34, Shiocton, Saturday was named the state's outstanding young farmer by the Wisconsin Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Conradt has worked on his own on his 420-acre dairy farm eight years. He took over the farm after working it as a partnership with his father.

He was honored at a dinner at Chippewa Falls Saturday night and was picked from a field of three finalists. Conradt was sponsored by the Appleton Jaycees.

Marion Man Second
Placing second in the state contest was Bert Blashe, 34, route 2, Marion. Third was Norman Meissner, Child, Clark County.

Conradt, the father of three children has 55 dairy cows, 43 heifers, 130 head of beef cattle, 130 hogs and 273 chickens. Since he took over the farm from his father, he has made a yearly investment of at least $5,000 or $6,000 in new machinery and equipment. Conradt also constructed his own bunker silo and feeders for his beef stock.

He now is working on a pure-bred Holstein dairy herd. His beef cattle are an Angus Holstein cross. Before young Conradt took over the farm his father had Hereford stock. Young Conradt found the return on this type cattle too low. He now buys the Hol-

2 Days Left For Voter Registration

Voter registration for the March 7 judicial and state superintendent of schools primary election will close Wednesday at 5 p.m. Registrations can be made in the various city clerk's offices from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m.

In Neenah, the clerk's office will be open from 6 to 7:30 p.m. to take registrations from those who cannot get in during regular hours. In Appleton, Menasha and Kaukauna there will be no special hours.

Anyone who will be 21 years old by election day, has lived in the state for one year and a city 10 days may vote.

Persons who have moved, even within a particular ward, must have the address on their permanent registration record changed. A phone call to a clerk's office can take care of this.

Democratic Party Vote to be Probed

Dissenters Seek New Ballot for Waupaca, Brown County Leaders

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MILWAUKEE — The legitimacy of Democratic organization leadership recently elected in Brown and Waupaca Counties will be investigated by the state Democratic party high command, the state party committee decided here at a weekend meeting.

A special committee of three widely known state party figures will "ferret out the facts" in the contests about the election last month of James Everson, Green Bay lawyer, as new party chief in Brown County and Howard Hazen, Manawa, as county chairman in Waupaca County.

Mrs. Edna Bowen of Lancaster, one-time national Democratic committeewoman for the state, will be chairman of the inquiry group. Also serving will be James Magellas of Fond du Lac and Al Charapata of Oshkosh.

Contests Refreshing
The contested local party elections represent a new but evidently refreshing experience for the state party men, who only a few years ago had to coax local Democrats to serve as county organization officers. Chairman Patrick J. Lucey, remarking that such contests show an "invigoration" of the party machine, said there had been complaints about election procedures in several other county caucuses lately.

The hope of the dissenters in Brown and Waupaca Counties is for an order from the state headquarters for new elections. The inquiry committee is expected to make reports before the next meeting of the state committee March 24.

The demand for state committee action in the Brown County situation was made in person by John O'Malley, one of the defeated candidates for the county chairmanship at the last caucus. He is the business agent for building trades unions in Green Bay. Everson did not attend the meeting.

K-C Earnings Rise in Last 3-Months to $102,404,650

This Trio of Executives are at the 46th annual meeting of the Technical Association of Pulp and Paper Industry in New York City. From left are Gilbert K. Dickerman, director corporate planning, Consolidated Water Power and Paper Co., Wisconsin Rapids; Allen Abrams, Wausau, consultant for Arthur D. Little Co., Cambridge, Mass.; and J. C. Wollwage, general manager of process and production, Kimberly-Clark Corp., Neenah.

Profit at 78 Cents Per Share

NEENAH — Kimberly - Clark Corp. today reported sales of $102,404,650 in the three months ended Jan. 31, third quarter of the company's fiscal year, as against $102,231,620 in the corresponding period last year.

Net earnings after taxes were $7,021,127, equal to 78 cents a share, compared with $8,612,469 and 97 cents a share a year ago.

"We expect that the fourth quarter will show appreciable improvement over this quarter, and it now seems probable that our earnings for the fiscal year will approximate those of last year," John R. Kimberly, board chairman, said.

Intense competition resulted in temporarily lower volume in some of the company's more profitable product lines, he said. Non-recurring costs incident to the construction and start-up of new facilities and certain process changes also were reflected during the quarter, he said.

Sales in the full three quarters ended January 31 totaled $305,821,498, compared with $294,835,640 in the like period a year before. Nine month net earnings were $22,337,689, equal to $2.50 a share, as against $22,195,927 and $2.49 a share a year ago.

41 to Get 4 Lanes From Neenah to 45 By This Summer

5 1/2-Mile Stretch to be Built of Continuous Strip of Concrete

Work will start about May on four-laning U. S. 41 between Oshkosh and Neenah. Contracts will be let at the end of March, LeRoy Empey, Green Bay highway district engineer, said today.

The road will be the second in the state built under a revolutionary concept in road building—continuous reinforcement. Basically, the idea means a road without joints, a rigid and continuous strip of concrete.

There will be joints in the road at the end of each day's concrete pour, about 2,000 feet, but it will be nothing like roads drivers now travel. The continuous nature of the steel reinforcing will make the roadway rigid for the entire 5 1/2-mile stretch.

Link With Milwaukee
The section will mean that U. S. 41 will be four-lane by this winter from Kaukauna to Milwaukee except for the Lake Butte des Morts bridge and a stretch between State 26 south of Oshkosh and State 175 near Fond du Lac.

Grading for the third and fourth lanes between Oshkosh and Fond du Lac county line, about 3.5 miles, may also be done this year. Fond du Lac County is in the Waushara district.

No overpasses or underpasses will be built this year on U. S. 41 between Cecil Street, Neenah, and U. S. 45, near Oshkosh. But the state plans to acquire rights-of-way for interchanges that may be needed in the future, such as at County Trunk G, near Bergstrom Paper Co.

Thick Concrete
The project will take 85,000 square yards of pavement, and 165,000 cubic yards of material will be brought in to form the roadbed.

With the new concept, the road will be an eight-inch concrete slab on a six-inch gravel and crushed stone base. Ordinary modern concrete highways in this area are nine-inch concrete slabs built on Vandals took a drive belt from the water system and turned off the fuel oil tanks, Heinritz said. The school is located about two miles north of Stephenville.

Twin City Banker Heads Fund Group

JOSEPH F. RYAN
Elected to Succeed Daniel E. Johnson

NEENAH — Joseph F. Ryan, 803 Forest Ave., Neenah, vice president and trust officer of National Manufacturers Bank of Neenah, has been elected president of the Neenah - Menasha Community Chest for 1961-62. He succeeds Daniel E. Johnson.

Johnson said last year was a busy and challenging one for the Community Chest, but said he could not term it successful.

The 1960 Community Chest drive collected $124,571.10, or $6,200 short of its goal. Johnson said the shortage was "substantial" and cannot be treated lightly.

"This is the second time in three years we failed to raise the required funds for our agencies. If this trend continues, the community and the services offered by our agencies will be seriously affected," he asserted.

As a result of the deficit, Johnson said five of the 10 agencies volunteered a cut in their budgets and two other agencies agreed to accept a cut the board of directors felt was necessary.

The board voted to reduce all budgets a total of $2,669, and charge the balance of the deficit against reserve funds.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $67,183.78 in the reserve fund on Sept. 30, 1960, and a balance of $6,784.98 in the replacement and maintenance fund.

Other new officers named at the Community Chest's annual meeting at the YWCA today were J. P. Buchanan, 569 E. Wisconsin Ave., Neenah, first vice president; E. O. Alberts, 514 Quarry Lane, Neenah, second vice president; J. W. Grimes, 1210 E. Forest Ave., Neenah, remained as treasurer and Mrs. W. I. Herriot as coordinator.

and Mrs. Violet Steinbach of Clintonville, defeated in the Waupaca County caucus for chairman and secretary of the county committee, appealed for intervention on behalf of themselves, Hazen and other newly elected officials of the party were present and did not object. Procedural questions are involved in both instances.

Lucey told the state committee that he had informally held that Everson was legally elected, but he said it is the committee's responsibility to make the final decision. He said Everson and Hazen would serve as "provisional" chairmen, pending the final ruling.

O'Malley told the top Democratic officials that his purpose and that of other objectors to Everson's election is a united party in his county. He said there is a danger that important elements of organized labor that have recently affiliated with the party may be offended by the proceedings. He also decried what he called "accusations" that organized labor "dragged its feet" in the campaign for the election of John F. Kennedy to the presidency.

Party Dissension

"Like the Packers, we want a winning team. We can make the Democratic party in Brown County the strongest it has ever been," he said.

Borchardt complained bitterly about the dissension in the Democratic party in his county, one of the strongest Republican voting districts of the state.

"Last fall there was more friction among the Democrats than there was against the Republicans. Some Democrats are ashamed to belong to the party because of what has happened," he reported.

Woman Questions Doctor on Problems Caused by Ulcers

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I want to ask about the occurrence of ulcers of the womb during pregnancy. Are they contagious? Can they hurt the baby in any way? Are they serious? Do they occur when a woman isn't pregnant?" — Mrs. R.F.

I've boiled this letter down to the essentials, and the fact that this has occurred to several women you know, regardless of whether they are related by marriage, doesn't essentially matter. These are ulcers of the cervix, or the neck of the womb. Another term for such ulcer is "erosion of the cervix," a not uncommon matter. They are not contagious. They do not and cannot harm the baby in any way. Yes, they occur in women who are not pregnant. Are they serious? Not particularly. They are, usually, due to what we call a low grade infection and hence not likely to explode into any serious situation. Treat Irritation At the same time, these ulcers represent an irritation to the cervix which ought to be treated. These nagging, but not very explosive, infections represent a continuing trouble spot which in the course of time takes its toll of physical robustness. You might well compare them to a trivial but persistent cough (assuming that there is not serious trouble underlying the cough), or to a sinus which is irritated and ought to be cleared up. Or, to take a quite different type of thing, compare them to a corn or bunion or callus that doesn't disable you, yet steals its little bit of comfort from you each day because it is painful or irritating. Ulcers (or erosion) of the cervix can be the cause of a vaginal discharge. There are many other different causes for such discharge. It may be due to small but annoying organisms such as protozoa, or from some slow but hardy bacteria, or whatnot. In some cases, the irritation may be a sign of something more virulent. But for most, the thing to keep in mind is that an irritation is present and ought to be eradicated. Sometimes the application of medication locally may do the trick. Sometimes cauterization of the irritated spot is the answer. Either way, it is not a worrisome or difficult process. Blood Pressure "Dear Dr. Molner: Will excessive coffee drinking and smoking cause high blood pressure?" — Mrs. B. M.

I have known both to be factors in high blood pressure. Obviously not the only cause, however.

How to get rid of leg cramps and foot pains? The answer may be simple. Write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper for a copy of his leaflet, "How To Stop Leg Cramps and Foot Pains," enclosing a long, self-addressed stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling. Rehabilitation Aim Is to Help Clients Gain New Self-Respect

BY REINY WESSING
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

TAYCHEEDAH — "You may feel you have come to the end of the road, that your outlook is bleak and hopeless. We would like to assure you that your stay with us can be the beginning of a new life... one you can face with confidence and renewed self-respect."

This is the opening paragraph of a booklet given to every woman sentenced to the Wisconsin Home for Women on the day she arrives. It reflects the attitude of Supt. Mrs. Marcia Simpson and her entire staff, and clearly indicates the objective of their rehabilitation program.

The program is an exemplification of "charity begins in the home." And its success is evidenced by the institution's low rate of return.

Low Rate of Return

On a national average, 40 per cent of women released from correctional institutions are sentenced again for further infractions of the law. At Taycheedah, the rate of return is 10 per cent, and most of these are alcoholics.

Taycheedah has a four-fold function. It is a prison, a reformatory, a jail and a school for girls.

But it is never called any of these things. It is always referred to as a home. And this is what it is.

None of the women are ever referred to as prisoners or inmates. They are clients.

Although the institution is first and foremost a correctional one, its program and atmosphere is that of a clinical rehabilitation center.

All of the women are treated the same and have the same privileges, no matter what their offense.

But for the recalcitrant and non-conforming client the prison atmosphere soon rears its ugly head. Infractions of the rules lead to corrections, which means losing privileges, such as certain recreations, movies and other forms of entertainment. Four corrections mean solitary confinement, for a period depending on the seriousness of the rules disobeyed, and until the client decides to obey.

But for the recalcitrant and non-conforming client the prison atmosphere soon rears its ugly head. Infractions of the rules lead to corrections, which means losing privileges, such as certain recreations, movies and other forms of entertainment. Four corrections mean solitary confinement, for a period depending on the seriousness of the rules disobeyed, and until the client decides to obey.

Medium Security

Taycheedah is a medium security institution. It has only a high wire fence around it, not a 12 or 15-foot stone wall with guardhouses atop it, like maximum security prisons. Minimum security places have little or no fence.

Taycheedah has lost much of high school courses, but some do college work. There is nearly 100 per cent completion of courses started.

Among trades offered are tailoring, upholstery, creative interior decorating and a full line of home economics courses. High School subjects include art, English, foreign languages, geography, history, music appreciation and all business and commercial courses. College work includes business administration, languages, mathematics, political science and sociology.

Staff teachers act as consultants and advisers for the extension courses. Assignments are sent to the university for grading. The majority of the clients get above average grades.

Handicraft and art workshops are very popular. Many of the girls have become proficient in ceramics and jewelry enameling.

Last year the home had 50 entries in the district rural art show. Nineteen received honorable mention. One, a modern art piece made with ceramic tile, will be entered in state competition.

Correspondence courses in religion are offered.

Church Services

There are the usual weekly church services, along with such things as holy hours for Catholics, and organizations like Lutheran League for Protestants.

Clients may have conferences any time with Mrs. Simpson, her assistant, the social workers, school principal and the staff psychiatrist and psychologist. All that is necessary is a written request.

None of the clients wear any distinctive prison-like garb. They wear ordinary street clothes — dresses, skirts, blouses, sweaters, loafers, flats, anklets and bobby socks.

Each has several good dresses, nylons and a pair of heels, which must be worn on a number of dress-up occasions.

When they leave the home each gets a full wardrobe, including a raincoat and boots.

Clients get 50 cents a week for the work they do. They can spend this at the canteen for candy, cosmetics, cigarettes and such things as tatting and crocheting cotton.

Case Load Increases

There are about 150 clients in the home now. During the past 1960 year-end report showed 31 fewer years the population has varied from 150 to 185. Seventyless.

Some of the Clients at the Wisconsin Home for Women painted this mural on the recreation room wall. Looking at the mural are, from left, Melville Flagstad, Appleton welfare director; Mrs. James Schuster, Neenah, a registered nurse at Winnebago State Hospital; and Dr. Vern Imhoff, head of the University of Wisconsin Fox Valley Extension Center. Dr. Imhoff took one of his sociology classes through the home. Flagstad and Mrs. Schuster are students in the class on deviant behavior.

Does This Look Like a Prison dining hall? It is. But the word prison doesn't appear in the title of the institution. This is one of the dining rooms at the Wisconsin Home for Women at Taycheedah. The wrought iron, glass topped furniture is practical. It's easier to maintain. And the glass tops make it harder for the women to sneak food out.

But with the increasing number of commitments Mrs. Simpson is asking for an expansion program that will allow accommodation of 210 clients without overcrowding facilities. She made the request when she appeared before the state division of corrections and Woods' expenses.

The institution's capacity was about doubled a few years ago, when some bunk beds were installed.

Most commitments to the home are for relatively short terms. The 1960 year-end report showed 31 fewer years the population has varied from 150 to 185. Seventyless.

state board of public welfare during budget hearings in Madison.

The home's caseload has gone up considerably in the past few years, since alcoholics are again sent there. For a few years these cases were sent to other institutions, but three years ago there was a change in plans and alcoholics now are being sent to Taycheedah again.

There is an Alcoholics Anonymous group at the home. When these women are discharged efforts are made to get them into a chapter in the city where they will live.

Summing up the work of the home, Mrs. Simpson told state officials in Madison, "It is our aim to make of this institution not merely a place where our clients live and learn, but to endow it with a spirit that exercises an abiding influence on the lives within our keeping."

Restaurant Owner Aided by Customers

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Customers have come to the aid of restaurant owner Raymond Woods.

Woods, who has a wife and eight children, recently underwent his 11th operation. Insurance companies dropped him long ago.

C. L. Birdsell, one of his many customers, hung a dollar bill on a wire over the counter. Since then many customers have followed suit in an effort to defray state division of corrections and Woods' expenses.

Spy Satellites Capable of Sky Maneuvers

Major Step Ahead In Defense of Orbiting Capsules

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — An experiment high in space has proved that American sky spy satellites will be able to maneuver in orbit — a major step ahead in their own defense.

A 2,100-pound Discoverer XXI satellite proved this Saturday by restarting its engine on radio command from earth.

Specialists see high significance in the development.

No longer will an orbiting satellite be an easy target for enemy ballistic missiles. It will, the Discoverer test indicates, be able to speed up, slow down or suddenly dart in a different direction.

Change Angle

Or it can change the shape, altitude or angle of its orbit around the earth. The way is paved, experts say, for a meeting of several satellites in orbit to form a way station for travel among the planets.

The Air Force launched Discoverer XXI at 2:58 p.m. Saturday, only 27 hours after Discoverer XX went into orbit with a 300-pound capsule. It will be orbited an unprecedented four days before ejection and a recovery attempt.

A medium-range Thor ballistic missile, workhorse of the two-year-old Discoverer series, boosted No. XXI from the ground.

The engine of the second stage, an Agena B, sputtered for 2 1/2 minutes to kick the 25-foot, 5-foot-thick satellite into orbit. This engine cut off, then restarted during the first pass around the earth's poles.

Another Success

"It is another successful experiment to perfect the system for satellite stabilization and control in orbit," said Maj. Gen. O. J. Rittland, commander of the Air Force missile division.

The Air Force said it was the first time an Agena B satellite vehicle had been restarted in orbit. Other engines have been restarted in space, on much smaller satellites. Agena Bs are designed to haul the heavy gear of forthcoming Midas missile-detection satellites and Samos camera satellites.

Britain Tells Plans for New Radar System

LONDON (AP)— Britain announced today that she is building a new high performance radar system designed to intercept supersonic aircraft.

Air Minister Julian Amery, presenting his estimates for the Royal Air Force for the fiscal year beginning April 1, said the radar system will include computers and data handling equipment. At any given moment it will give officials a clear picture of what is moving in the skies over Britain, he said.

When completed it also will form part of an integrated civil and military air traffic control organization made necessary by the vast increase in airplane traffic in recent years.

Amery said Britain's V-bomber force — equipped first with blue steel and subsequently with the American-made Skybolt missiles — will "give Britain an effective nuclear deterrent during the next decade."

Amery's budget for the RAF provides for expenditure of some 525 million pounds ($1,472,800,000). The total defense spending figure, already announced, amounts to 1,655,600,000 pounds ($4,635,680,000).

Amery said that by the mid 1960's the ground hugging TSR2 plane will be coming into service. This aircraft is designed to fly at tremendous speeds at treetop level and thus avoid detection on enemy radar screens.

The minister estimated the strength of the RAF on April 1 at 158,700 — a decrease of 4,750 men since last April 1. Strength on April 1, 1962, is expected to be 149,900.

Inate Minister to Keep Fifth Car That Crashed on His Lawn

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—When another automobile piled into his front yard Sunday, the outraged Rev. E. J. Stelle decided to keep the car—at least for a while.

The Rev. Mr. Stelle said it was the fifth car to crash into his yard in 2 1/2 years. His house is located on a curve of a southeast Portland street.

"We just get our fence built up and it happens again," said Mrs. Stelle wearily.

The driver was booked on a drunkenness charge.

the next Discoverer, which probably will be launched some time next month. The Air Force has refused to confirm the report.

Big Strides Taken By 'Junior Union'

BY VICTOR RIESEL
PITTSBURGH — May Carl Sandburg forgave me, but the reports from the mine patches of America still have it that Feb. 12 is John Lewis Day. To the coal diggers, idle and at work, John L's old gray mane is still what it used to be. To them even on his 81st birthday, he still is the emancipator.

Riesel

But if Lewis has not changed, the thunderer's union has. The great miners' organization, whose wrath used to darken this continent long before it struck a pit, now is smaller than what once was its junior partner, the catch-all "District 50." This union, set up by John L. for his younger brother, Denny Lewis, now 72, has over 200,000 members. The parent United Mine Workers now has only 180,000 employed dues-payers.

Quietly, and virtually unnoticed, District 50 has been taking on the most powerful labor leaders, including Jimmie Hoffa — and has been beating them in their own fields. Wherever you go of District 50 organizers have been there before you, slowly building a new Lewis labor empire, organizing the unorganized.

In Houston recently I found them unionizing tree surgeons. They actually won a labor board election so they could represent workers at "Trees of Houston." In Boston earlier I ran into District 50 organizers talking strike at the Boston Gas Co. Further North near Lewiston, Maine, I ran into their people trying to drive the AFL-CIO Textile Union out of the Continental Mills.

During the great New York harbor strike, which paralyzed at least one continental railroad, I found the "miners" in marine units aboard on tugboats of the former Erie Railroad. A follow-through revealed they had locals among the licensed deck personnel in the American Export Lines and in the Cape Fear Towing Co. They had members in Wilmington, Del., on United Fruit Line ships. Bull Line vessels and manning the American Coal Shipping Lines. A further check disclosed that during November and December they unionized men in the oxygen and pressure tank field, on city water supply installations, in stone quarries, at a Union Carbide plant, among auto salesmen, gas companies, iron companies and laundries, at a Coca Cola plant in Chicago, vinyl raincoat factories, as well as construction firms and trucking corporations—Hoffa or not.

Nor are these small plants. They have signed up public utilities and a Dow Chemical plant employing 6,500 men. In all, Denny Lewis has signed some 3,200 contracts. These are administered out of 65 regional offices in the U.S. and Canada. There are 700 locals and they owe their allegiance to the Brothers Lewis.

Some time ago the Lewises decided that the other old-timers were growing soft. So the United Mine Workers District 50 began moving into the supposedly tough AFL-CIO construction trades. Lewis' organizers went after construction job contracts on big road building projects, dams and big buildings.

Lewis had put up 10 hospitals and was a good "customer" of the big construction firms. He told there before you, slowly building a new Lewis labor empire, organizing the unorganized.

At the last count, the Lewises had challenged the old AFL-CIO unions 98 times. District 50 won 56 of the contracts. The AFL-CIO took only 12. About 25 resisted all union drives.

Now District 50 has come of age as a union and John L. and Brother Denny have decided the time has come for its first national convention.

The District was set up in 1946. But always it has been under the strong hand of John L. The old order must change. So on Feb. 21, some 1,200 delegates will gather in the grand ballroom of Washington's Sheraton Park Hotel.

There are signs that young bloods are eager to take over.

They know not too much about the great saga, for it is now a very long decade since the man in the old gray mane roared. If the young bucks act up, John L. will drive in from Florida and teach the youngsters a thing or two about hog-tying the opposition. After all, he was only 81 last Lin-corn's Day.

President Asks Social Security Law Changes

Seeks New Boost In Taxes, Higher Benefits to Some

WASHINGTON—(AP) President Kennedy today proposed still another increase in social security taxes to provide more liberal benefits in some cases and to extend coverage to additional workers.

The President sent to congress legislation to make what he called needed improvements in the program. In letters to Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, the senate's presiding officer, and House Speaker Sam Rayburn, Kennedy said of the changes he recommended:

"They will not only help to meet pressing social needs, but if promptly enacted these improvements will give our economic recovery program needed impetus. They will result in placing increased purchasing power in the hands of almost five million people. The people are among the lowest income groups in the country."

Cost Not Estimated

The changes Kennedy proposed would require an increase of one-quarter of one per cent in social security taxes levied against both workers and employers. The increase would go into effect Jan. 1, 1963.

Kennedy did not estimate, in his letters to Johnson and Rayburn, the cost of the suggested tax increase.

It would be in addition to an increase in the same amount—one-quarter of 1 per cent on the part of both workers and employers.

Kennedy recently proposed another increase of the same amount to finance the new administration's plans for health insurance for 14.2 million Americans 65 or older.

Menominees to Elect New Board Members

Will Establish New County When Indian Federal Supervision Ends

KESHENA — Residents of the Menominee Indian Reservation will vote Tuesday, March 7, for a provisional seven member town and county board for the new Menominee County.

The board will work with the attorney general's office to organize and establish the new 72nd county in Wisconsin, if federal government ends supervision over the Menominees April 30 as scheduled.

Gov. Gaylord Nelson is expected to appoint the provisional town and county board members selected by reservation residents in the special election.

To Represent Precincts

A board member will be elected from each of five voting precincts in the reservation area, and two board members will be named at large.

Deadline for filing nomination papers for candidates is Friday. All reservation residents who have lived there for one year and are 21 years old are eligible for election. Nominees do not have to be tribal members. The candidate will be board chairman.

The new board will succeed the Menominee Indian Advisory Council in directing local government affairs.

Former Head of Firm Arrested At Sioux City

SIoux CITY, Iowa (AP)—Harold E. Kistner Jr., 35, former president of the Northern Biochemical Corp. of Sheldon, was arrested today in connection with a federal grand jury investigation of the company.

Kistner reportedly was indicted last week for violation of the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations in the alleged sale of Northern Biochemical stock.

Attorney Frank Margolin of Sioux City said Mrs. Kistner called him today and said Deputy U. S. Marshal Robert Dale had arrested her husband. He was being taken to Sioux City from his Sheldon home.

Kistner, dismissed as Northern president last month, was accused in January of aiding and abetting a $2 million embezzlement at the Sheldon National Bank.

U.S. Commissioner W. M. Forker dismissed the charge on Jan. 25 after a preliminary hearing on grounds of insufficient evidence.

That charge was the outgrowth of the embezzlement which closed the office door to gain entry and took the money from a cash box, Heinritz said.

The New Green Bay police chief is Elmer A. Madison, a former FBI agent and now an operator of a private investigative agency. He was appointed Saturday.

News Writer Bowed Before Top Loyalty To Chain O' Lakes

WAUPACA — Loyalty to the unparalleled vacation attractions on the Chain O' Lakes is a well known and respected commodity here, but Alton R. Hansen, 610 Shearer St., may typify the height of this loyalty.

In reading the Appleton Post-Crescent's progress edition story concerning the Grand Army Home at King, Friday, Hansen was stopped short when he ran across the words "the former Chain O' Lakes summer resort" and he sat right down at his typewriter to demand an apology for the writer's using the word "former" in connection with the Chain O' Lakes as a summer resort.

If he had read farther into the story, he would have found that the Grand Army Home is on the site of the old Greenwood Park Hotel donated to the GAR by the citizens of Waupaca 74 years ago.

It was the writer's intention to have "former" refer to the Greenwood Park Hotel not to the entire beautiful, salubrious, attractive, unmatched and unmatched Chain O' Lakes.

Proposed Changes

The changes Kennedy proposed today would:

1. Increase from the present $33 a month to $43 the minimum benefit payable to a retired or disabled insured worker.
2. Reduce the age at which men are eligible for retired benefits from the current 65 to 62. The benefits for those who claim them before age 65 would be reduced to take into account the longer period over which they would get the benefits.
3. Change the proportion of time which an insured person must work under social security to be eligible for retirement benefits. At present workers are required to show they have worked three calendar months in insured employment for every nine calendar months since 1950. This would be liberalized to provide that workers put in one quarter of each year, or three months, in covered work for each four quarters.

strictly for the exercise by the Terrors, they decreed here last Saturday.

By shading Sheboygan South, 60-57, Appleton helped assure itself of clear possession of second place in final Fox River Valley Conference standings. Appleton is now 12-5 over-all.

Sheboygan North lost to Manitowoc, 58-49, and was eliminated from contention for the FRVC's runnerup spot.

The kind of free throw accuracy that has paid off for them all season won for the Terrors in South's roomy and glistening new gym. AHS wired six straight free throws in the last 1:20 of action to break a 54-all tie. Reserve guard Tom Lonigro's only two points of the game proved the evening's winning tallies.

This FRVC barn-burner was tied 12 times and the lead switched hands on 13 occasions. The paradoxical failure of the scoreboard clock in South's multi-million dollar school made things somewhat confusing throughout the thriller.

Rankin Scores 17
Playing with a heavily-taped ankle, center Dick Rankin scored 17 points to pace the victors. Rankin hit 62.5 per cent of his field goal tries (five for eight) and 78 per cent of his foul shots (seven for nine).

He had worked only about two minutes the night before against Oshkosh and didn't start here Saturday.

Al Vandenberg, who scored 14 points for his career high total Friday, counted 12 against South, wiring 60 per cent of his shots (six for 10). Pete Treiber also tallied 12, including eight free throw tries in 12 shots.

As a team, Appleton minted 24 free throws in 34 attempts, for a fancy 71 per cent.

'Kip' Scores 31 in First Half Against Thiensville-Mequon

Red-hot shooting led Xavier High School to a 74-45 basketball victory over Thiensville-Mequon on the losers' court Sunday.

"Kip" Whitlinger paced the Hawks, hitting a season high of 38 points on 17 field goals and four free throws. He scored 31 points in the first half and played only about three quarters.

Xavier counted field goals at a 48.5 per cent clip while Mequon had only 29.7 per cent. Whitlinger made 17 of 25 field goal tries.

Eighth Straight
It was the eighth straight victory for the Hawks and gives them a 16-3 record for the season. The Hawks moved with the fast break to an 18-7 first period end and were never headed. By half-time they had hiked the margin to 42-21.

"Chuck" Lueck followed Whitlinger in scoring with six buckets for 12 points. Mayer was high for the losers with 12 markers.

Xavier will play its final game of the regular season at Stevens Point Pacelli Wednesday night.

Trucker Quint Wins Over Ghosts, 47-38

Takes Undisputed Possession of Fourth Place

CLINTONVILLE — Clintonville High School's Trucker's shot an unofficial 54.5 per cent from the floor here Saturday night and downed Kaukauna, 47-38.

The victory, and Menasha's loss to Shawano, broke a fourth place tie between the Trucker's and Jays in the Mid-Eastern Conference.

The Trucker's are now 9-8 overall and 7-6 in the conference. Kaukauna is 3-14 overall and 2-11 in the loop.

Dick Bennett paced the Trucker's with 15 points. He brought the ball up the floor alone against a Kaukauna press, with little trouble all evening. George Greeley and Ken Beggs tallied 11.

Tom Polzin, who hit just one point, led the game's rebounders with 10, while Beggs had eight. The winners owned a 32-15 edge on the boards.

The Trucker's led, 9-7, at the end of the first stanza. The game was tied at 9, 11 and 13, in the second quarter before the hosts went in front to stay. Clintonville led, 20-15, at the half, as Bennett scored two baskets and a free throw.

The Trucker's were on top, 30-23, entering the fourth stanza. Kaukauna was still within six (41-35) with 2:00 to go. Then Bennett hit a basket and free throw. Mick Nelson free throws and Doug Huebner a basket for a 12-point (47-35) lead with about 1:30 left.

Guards Tom Heistand, a sophomore, and Ken Kavanagh led the Ghosts with 10 and nine points, respectively.

Only one of Kaukauna's 14 baskets against a Trucker zone was scored from inside. The Ghosts, as has been their style, worked the ball very deliberately but often wound up gunning from long range after failing to penetrate the zone.

Clintonville made its 18 field goals in just 33 shots for its 54.5 mark. Kaukauna hit 14 of 38 field shots for 36.8.

Clintonville wired only 11 of 23 free throw tries for 48 per cent. The losers made 10 of 16 for 62.5.

Shawano Wins, 68 to 54, Drops Menasha '5' to Second Division

SHAWANO—The Menasha Blue-jays plunged to the second division of the Mid-Eastern Conference standings Saturday night as they dropped a 68-54 verdict to the fast-breaking Shawano Indians.

With sophomore guard Tom Wagner leading the way, Shawano moved to a 66-48 lead, with six minutes to play, and coasted home. The 5-8 Wagner put in 17 in the second half Shawano barrage.

The Jays had a better shooting percentage and a slight edge on the boards but it was the 16-2 contest at 2-0 and 3-2. Bill Prange connected on the first Jay margin of Shawano's victory. Another flurry of points, midway in the second half, ran the Shawano lead from 50-42 to 66-48.

Menasha fired in 22 of 57 shots for a 39 per cent shooting mark to within one point, at 26-25. Three while the Indians made 22 of 63 quick buckets in the final minute

Neenah, Kimberly To Duel for Title

Rockets Gain 68-54 Win Over Raiders

NEENAH—Neenah tucked away its tenth Mid-Eastern Conference victory of the season and stayed tied with Kimberly for the lead Saturday as it dropped the Two Rivers Purple Raiders, 68-54.

Dick Kuehl, a 6-1 sophomore, netted seven free throws in nine attempts and scored a total nine points in the second half. Six of his charity tosses were in succession.

The Rockets' Paul Felton was forced to leave the contest because of an ankle sprain with more than six minutes to play in the third period. The high scoring forward returned at the start of the final segment but favored the ankle and was taken out of the lineup again.

He had accumulated 13 points to bring his season total to 202. Little Doug Ankerson took scoring honors for the game with 19 points. Scott Stenhardt led the Raiders with 18.

The winners broke from a 5-3 tie to a 15-7 lead at the end of the first quarter. Jim Sauby increased the lead to ten points, at 17-7, and the teams traded points all the way to intermission time.

It was at 34-23 in the Rocket's favor midway in the third period when Two Rivers began to hit. Lee Speiring, Tom Brigham, and John Boutin snagged the nets to close the Neenah margin to 34-28.

Kuehl and Jim Sauby made six straight free throws and the Rockets had the score back up to 40-28 and at the end of the third stanza it was, Neenah 47, Two Rivers 30.

Two Rivers scored 24 points in the final period but the margin was too great to overcome. Neenah was still going strong at the end. Five successive free throws, by Ankerson and Steve Price, made the score 68-43 before the Raiders added the final point.

Neenah won the game on the free throw line. They made 10 of 11 in the first half, missed four of

Reasner's Basket Wins It; Ripon Is Next Lawrence foe

MONMOUTH — For the first time since November of 1958, St. Mary has lost a home basketball game. The Zephyrs fell in the last three seconds to Waukesha Catholic Memorial Saturday night at the Menasha High School Gymnasium.

Junior Center Bob Pfeffer worked in for a short jump shot to provide the winning margin and make the final count, 45-43, after the teams exchanged the lead throughout most of the contest.

Zephyr Guard Bill Becker had nearly saved the day for St. Mary with a basket on a 'steal', with :23 remaining, to tie the score at 43-all.

It was the third defeat of the season for Coach Ralph McClone's team but the first loss on a home court since Milwaukee North trimmed them, 55-42. During that span, St. Mary has called four different gymnasiums their 'home', using St. Joseph (Appleton), St. Margaret Mary (Neenah), St. John (Menasha), and the Menasha High School Gym to host its opponents.

victory. Reasner, who collected 25 points against Lawrence last December, had been limited to one goal in the first 37 minutes Saturday before his late-game heroics.

Payoff Shot
The Vikes led for 23 of the first 30 minutes in one of the best-played Alexander Gym games of the season. Reasner's payoff shot produced the eleventh and final lead exchange of the last 10 minutes' worth of pulsating basketball.

For the Vikes, whose next game is scheduled for Saturday night at Ripon, it was the fourth whisker-thin loss among their 11 setbacks. It probably ranks as the most disheartening of 'em all.

Remembering the 86-60 December wallop at the hands of the tall Scots in Monmouth, Coach Don Boya revised Vike strategy for the return joust.

He replaced regular guard Chuck Knocke (5-9) with 6-1 John Hackworthy (ordinarily a forward) for added rebounding and zone-defending height. Boya also slowed down the Vike offense against the Scots, whose starting front line comprised 6-6 John Allen, 6-5 Clair McRoberts and 6-3 Reasner.

The Vikes carried out Boya's instructions expertly, playing deliberate, pattern ball to set up good shots. Lawrence sank 43.9 per cent of its floor shots (compared to .379 — 25 of 66 — for Monmouth).

Hit Their Stride
After trailing by small margins for the first 6½ minutes, the Vikes hit their stride and moved ahead, 12-10, on a Jim Rasmussen 20-foot goal. Lawrence

NEW LONDON — The Kimberly Papermakers set the stage for a Mid-Eastern Conference title game with Neenah Friday by defeating the New London Bulldogs, 81 to 66, here Saturday night.

A big first quarter which was led by sharp shooting Jeff Vander Velden gave the Papermakers a lead which they never relinquished. Vander Velden hit on four long shots to lead the attack and gave Kimberly a 19-8 lead going into the second period.

New London was held to just one field goal — by Dick Emerich — during the first quarter.

The visitors continued their assault in the second quarter by outscoring the hosts, 26-20. Dave Minten took over where Vander Velden left off in the scoring column for Kimberly. He banged in 10 of his game total 15 points, during the second stanza.

The Bulldogs finally found the range with junior center Bill Barrington leading their attack. Barrington, playing in his second varsity game this season, was also the game's top scorer with 24 points on seven baskets and 10 free throws. Kimberly led 45-28 at halftime.

Both teams played on even terms during the third quarter, each getting 20 points. Al Hietpas who scored 19 points for the evening collected 10 of them during this third quarter.

Mike Herres, who was held scoreless in the first half by some fine defensive work by Jeff Vander Velden, broke out with eight markers to lead the hosts in the third period.

The final quarter saw the Bulldogs take a scoring edge, 18-16. The papermakers who fouled 28 times during the contest, lost Tom Peerenboom, Tom Rooyackers and Hietpas during the fourth quarter. Both Peerenboom and Rooyackers fouled out simultaneously with 4:42 minutes remaining in the game, when they were called for fouling Barrington, each by a different official.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Marquette's mark of 526 and his 21.6 average has a new basketball scoring age is above his own season average record of 20.9.

Kojis became the greatest scorer in Marquette history Saturday night as he poured in 24 points to lead the Warriors to a 72-63 victory over the Air Force at Colorado Springs, Col.

The 12-basket barrage by Kojis, a senior, gave him a three-year total of 1,359 points, breaking the Marquette record of 1,355 set by Mike Moran from 1956-59. Kojis has six more games in which to pad his record.

Kojis also is hot on the trail of three other school records. He has 348 rebounds and needs 49 to break Terry Rand's mark of 396 for a season. He has 433 points and needs 94 to top Moran's sea-picked up only four fouls giving St. Mary only five free throws, of which they converted three. Memorial was successful on 15 of 21 of the free throws that resulted from 12 St. Mary infractions.

The winners shot at about a 35 per cent clip, making 15 of 43 shots. St. Mary made 20 fielders on 66 floor attempts for a 30.3 mark. Memorial cagers increased their accuracy as the game progressed. They made 6 of 17 shots in the second half.

The 6-5 Pfeffer, the Memorial hero, paced the Crusader scoring with 14 points.

Jim Koerner was the highest scoring individual in the game with 15 points on seven baskets on 19 shots and a successful effort on his only free throw. Bill Becker tallied five baskets on 9 shots and a free throw.

Memorial wiped out a 2-0 St. Mary lead with baskets by Pfeffer, Land, and Tom Dixon. St. Mary then came back with six straight to take an 8-6 advantage.

The lead changed hands 14 times and was tied four times in the second period. Bob Rueckl put the Zephyrs ahead, 16-15, with 6:29 to play and Koerner had to connect from the corner on three straight occasions, all to get the lead back. Bob Stumpf's long-range bucket gave St. Mary the halftime edge, a 28-26.

The Zephyrs got their biggest lead of the game, 33-28, with 4:38 remaining in the third stanza. Suddenly they went into a deliberate style offense and, at the 1:02 mark, held a 35-30 advantage.

A free throw by Dixon at the end of the third quarter and baskets by Land and Haase at the start of the final segment tied the count for Memorial at 35 all with 6:41 to play.

Becker connected on a short jump shot (6:25), to give the Zephyrs the lead for the last time. Land sank a charity toss and Pfeffer sank a pair of them to give Memorial a 38-37 lead with just over five minutes remaining.

The Crusaders increased the margin when Haase connected to make the arithmetic read, 40-37. Becker narrowed it, to 40-39, but Waukesha put on an effective stall and St. Mary had to foul to break it up.

Haase's free toss made it 41-39 and Madden pumped in two more to give Memorial biggest lead of the game. Rechner brought the Zephyrs within two before Becker's "steal" tied it and set up Pfeffer's performance.

Mary Novak Keeps Women's Indoor Skating Honors

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Olympian Keith Meyer and unheralded Bob McCarthy reigned as national indoor speed skating co-champions today as a result of a collision in an explosive mile windup.

Meyer and McCarthy crashed while battling for the lead with just one lap to go Sunday in the final event of the two-day annual competition. Meyer managed to regain his feet quickly and make

As a result of the collision, Brian Schmitzer of Chicago and Ed Rudolph finished 1-2 in the mile. Rudolph's effort, however, was not enough in the overall standings as the national outdoor champion finished with 13 points, one behind Meyer and McCarthy. Schmitzer had a total of seven points.

Mary Novak, a pert Northwestern University senior from Chicago, retained her senior women's indoor crown by battling off a determined challenge by Darlene Sechanic of New York. Miss Novak collected 16 points, three more than Miss Sechanic, while looking ahead to the North American championships, in Buffalo, N.Y., next month.

Bob Fenn, 17-year-old high school senior from Flushing, N.Y., was the meet's outstanding performer as he breezed to victory easily in every race he started in the intermediate boys division.

Three national indoor records were shattered during the weekend racing. Pete Cefalu of the host West Allis club won the juvenile boys event in 1:29.1, bettering the mark of 1:29.6 set by Dave Arends of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in 1953. Cefalu went on to win his division title.

Loretta Chapman of Detroit, who won the intermediate girls championship, was clocked in 1:32.7 in the 880, shaving a tenth of a second off Miss Novak's record.

Dave Hill Wins Tucson Open

27-Foot Birdie Putt Cops 3-Way Playoff for Title

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A 27-foot desperation putt good for a birdie on the third hole Sunday gave Dave Hill of Jackson, Mich., victory in the sudden death playoff for top money in the $20,000 Tucson Open golf tournament.

Former U.S. Open champ Tommy Bolt and California rookie Buddy Sullivan quietly headed for the clubhouse as the 23-year-old Hill leaped for joy. It was his first PGA victory.

The putt that wasn't meant to fall earned $2,800 for Hill and shares to $1,670 each.

"I just hit it," said the elated youngster. "I had no idea it would go in. All I was trying to do was get close to the pin for a par."

Hill also had something to jump about a few minutes earlier when his 15-foot putt dropped for an eagle 3 on the par-5, 510-yard 18th hole. This gave him a 5-under-par 65 for the round and a 72-hole total of 269.

It also put the pressure on nine others still on the course if they were to tie him. At the start of the final round, Hill had been in a three-way tie for ninth.

Bolt met the challenge with birdies on the last two holes for a 1-under-par for the rain swept 6,464-yard, par 70 El Rio Course.

Sullivan stood up under pressure by coming out of trees for a birdie on the 18th. Bolt also had 269. Sullivan had shared the lead at the halfway mark with Jay Herbert and held a stroke advantage going into the final round.

Bolt missed a 10-foot putt for a birdie on the first extra hole by less than an inch. All three took par fours for the 368-yard hole.

Bolt went for victory on the second hole with a 20-foot chip shot from the apron that rimmed the cup and hung on the lip. He had to settle for a par 4 on the 450-yard No. 2 hole. So did Hill and Sullivan. The end came on the next green.

ballooned its lead to nine points (22-12 and 24-15) before the Scots again found the range to reduce the Vikes' halftime superiority to 32-29.

Midway in the second half, the Scots overtook the hosts, 45-44, on Carl Goff's 25-footer. That set a give-and-take pattern in exciting motion.

Lawrence's Joe Lamers, who connected on his only three second-half shots, hit from 12 feet out for a 46-45 lead.

Monmouth's talented McRobert got it back with a drive-in. The Vikes' Jim Jordan retaliated with a basket, but McRoberts' free throw squared it at 48.

Jordan free-tossed Lawrence back into the lead, but Monmouth's Jerry Mell scored from 20 feet away and a 50-49 lead.

Loren Wolf, the Vikes' co-high scorer, then became deadly from the foul line and draped through four in a row for a 53-50 Lawrence advantage.

Scores on Hook
McRoberts hooked the Scots back within one point, and Reasner found a favorable side angle for a lead-producing (54-53) shot.

Jim Rasmussen netted an artful reverse lay-up, with 1:51 left, and Lawrence led, 55-54. Monmouth came right back with a successful long Goff shot.

Lamers came through under pressure for a 20-foot turn-around jumper, to send the Vikes back ahead, 57-56, with only :46 left.

But, Reasner was to have the last word with his bell-ringer. The Vikes called time out with 22 seconds left. Monmouth, however, used a tight man-to-man defense to foil Lawrence's efforts of setting up a good shot. Finally, with time running out, Wolf did get off a shot, but it hit the rim, and the rebound was knocked out of bounds.

McRoberts, who went into weekend action as the MC's leading scorer, produced 21 points against the Vikes. Wolf and Rasmussen each scored 19, and along with Lamers — did yeoman rebounding duty.

shot at a .430 clip Saturday, the best for Wisconsin this season in conference play.

Walt Bellamy, who played on the U.S. Olympic basketball team, led the Hoosiers with 28 points. His scoring dominance was seriously challenged in the second half, however, by Wisconsin's new sophomore discovery Ror Jackson, who pitched in 26 points, all of them in the final period.

Bellamy's scoring in the first half was limited to two field goals and a free throw by a shifting zone defense employed by the Badgers. Erickson put Siebel, 6-5 sophomore guard, on Bellamy. Indiana led at the intermission 41-35 but came back in the final period to widen the gap and hold the commanding lead most of the night.

Coach John Erickson is optimistic despite the fact that his Badgers have dropped eight straight games—the last to Indiana Saturday night by a 98-84 score.

"I don't care what our record is," Erickson said. "We are a far better team than a year ago. We are doing things we couldn't at-tempt last season and some night it is going to pay off."

League Records
Wisconsin's season record is 4-14 and its Big 10 mark is 1-7. Minnesota has an 8-12 overall record and a 6-4 conference mark.

Erickson said he was pleased with the showing of his team against a red-hot Indiana squad that had a .537 field goal shooting rate.

He said he would start Tom Hughesbanks, Ron Jackson, Capt. Jim Biggs in the front line and Ken Siebel and Dave VanderMeulen as guards. This combination a stellar game both on defense and as the team's floor general. Monmouth has leveled its MC record at 7-7. Lawrence now has a 4-10 conference mark.

Leafs Move Back Into Title Tie With Canadians

The Toronto Maple Leafs have slipped back into a tie with the Montreal Canadiens for the National Hockey League lead.

The Leafs, as much as six points ahead not long ago, fell back into a tie when they could get only an even break in their weekend games, winning 5-2 from the Chicago Black Hawks Saturday but dropping a 4-2 decision to the New York Rangers Sunday.

The Canadiens, bidding for their fifth NHL championship in six seasons, walloped the Rangers 7-4 Saturday and followed with a 4-2 victory over the Detroit Red Wings Sunday.

Indiana Quintet Will Seek Revenge Tonight Against Ohio State

Buckeyes Survive Near-Ambush at Iowa, 62 to 61

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio State's top-ranked and undefeated Buckeyes, surviving Saturday night's near ambush at Iowa by a 62-61 margin to all but seal their second straight Big Ten basketball championship, bump to revenge-minded Indiana tonight.

The Hoosiers, having the advantage of their own home floor, forgot the humiliating 90-65 defeat they suffered at Ohio State two weeks ago, adding to the growing basketball feud between the two schools.

Last season, Indiana was one of the top favorites to cop the Big Ten title. However, Ohio State, bolstered by such newcomers as Jerry Lucas, John Havlicek and Earl Nowell, tipped Indiana 96-95 in Columbus and went on to clinch the title.

Lost at Indiana
After having won the championship, Ohio State lost at Indiana 83-83. The Hoosiers, quite natural, thought they were a better club and made it known how they felt.

That was the last loss Ohio State suffered. It has a current streak of 25 victories—20 this season including a 10-0 conference record. Prior to the Indiana game two weeks ago, Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor had been yanking his starters early in the second half as the Buckeyes kept rolling up big scores.

But against Indiana, Taylor went with the regulars until Havlicek hit on a short jump to make the score 100-63 with 1:33 to play. Indiana Coach Branch McCracken accused Ohio State of pouring on. Taylor retorted:

Sick and Tired
"Our players got sick and tired reading in the papers that they (the Hoosiers) were better than we were last year. You don't kick kids around like that and not make them mad."

This time Indiana could be the team which is "mad." Other games tonight find Illinois (4-4) at Michigan State (1-9), Iowa (6-4) at Michigan (1-7) and Minnesota (6-4) at Wisconsin (1-7). Ohio State had its hands full against Iowa Saturday night and

Bobcats, Soos Tie, 3-3, in Series Finale

Green Bay Wins Brawl-Marked Opener, 7-2

BY LEE REMMELL

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — Warming up with a record 20-penalty soiree Saturday night, claimed by the home forces, 7-2 in an atmosphere of swinging sticks and incipient brawls, the Bobcats and the truculent Canadian-American Soo Indians struggled to a fast, bruising 3-3 tie before 2,541 aroused customers at the Arena Sunday afternoon.

The Green Bay icemen, who exploded 3-2 tension in the series opener with a four-goal burst in the third period to the delight of 1,375, stormed the Soo zone and goalie Attilio Rosso for two of the last three minutes in the memorable matinee but came away empty-handed, as did their desperate guests in a similar assault during the final 60 seconds.

Second Deadlock
The deadlock, second of the season for the Bobcats, left them with a 2-4-2 record and looking to another Canadian foe, the Chatham, Ont., Maroons, the dominion's 1960 senior champions, who invade Saturday night. The Indians, worthy leaders of the Northern Michigan Hockey League, departed with a 19-4-3 mark.

Although the Bobcats were inclined to deplore the failure of that eleventh hour assault, they might well have pointed the finger at a scoreless second period in which the Indians pulled abreast 2-2, after trailing 2-1 at the end of the first.

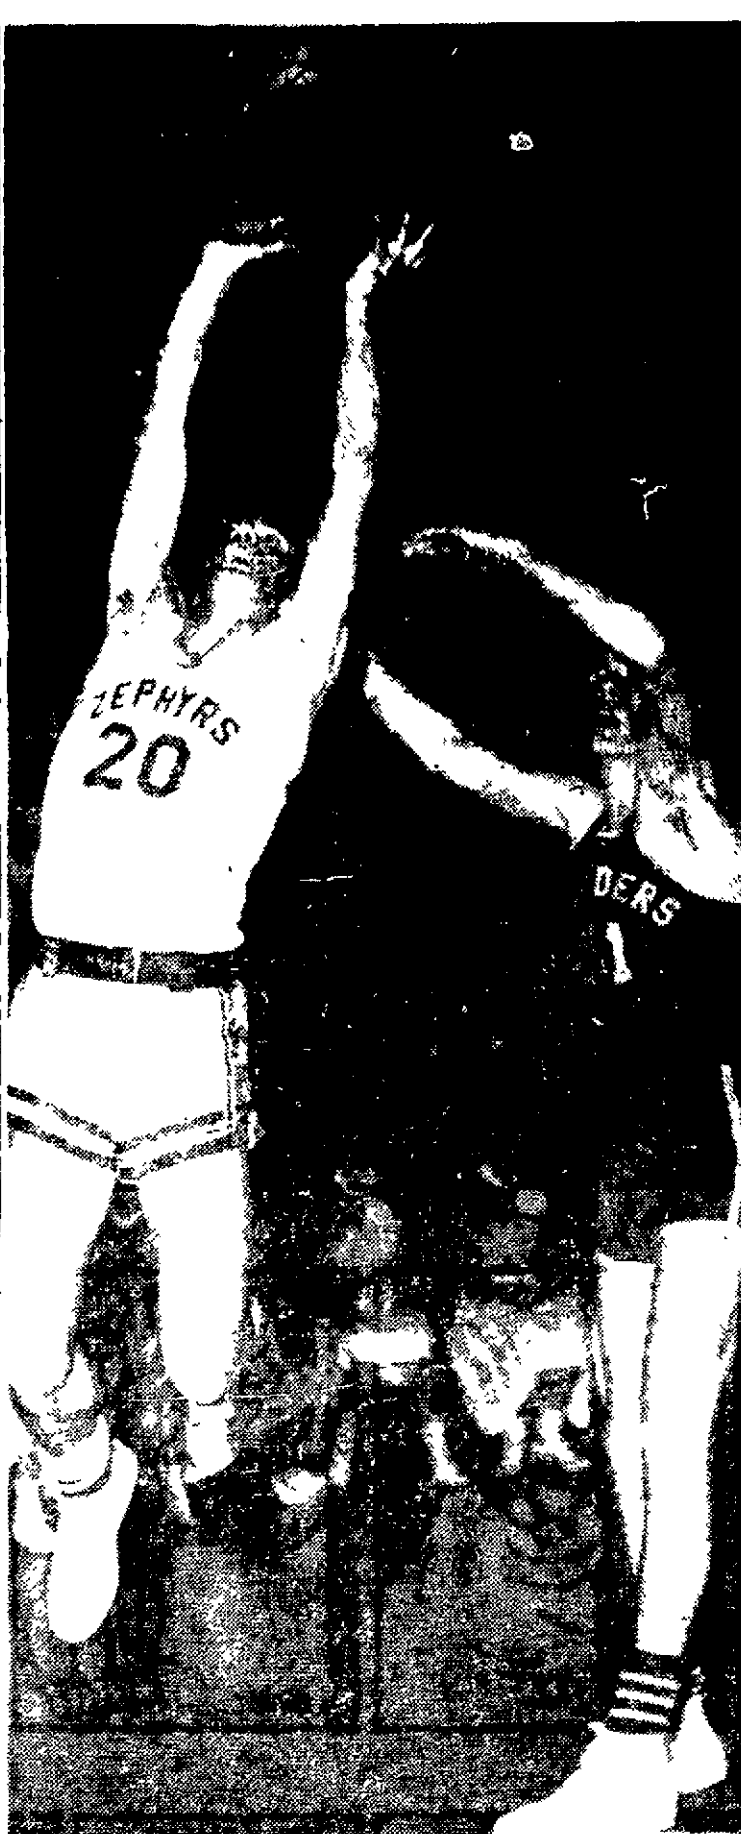

Tireless Jackie Poole, a stand-out all afternoon, shot the Bobcats into a 3-2 with only 1:33 gone in the third period on a brilliant collaboration with linemate Gerry Marttila.

Just past the mid-point, the Indians' big Tony Ciaschini intercepted a pass from behind the Green Bay cage by Mike Horn and flicked a bouncer past the Bobcats' Jim Mattson into the right corner of the net, tripping the red light at 12:39.

It was a grim, tense struggle, the rest of the way, pulling the fans to their feet repeatedly in the last five minutes.

59 Minutes
Saturday night's record-breaking imbroglio was spiced by the assessment of 59 minutes in penalties, including four major sentences, one of them a 10-minute levy on Soo Player-Coach Eddie Joss. The highly combative Indians collected 33 minutes, the Bobcats 26.

If his first period goal hadn't been nullified Saturday, Marttila would have emerged with the hat trick. Scoreless up to this point as a result, the rugged Finn "beat" Rosso twice early in the final period, simultaneously staking

These, together with two assists and two more Sunday afternoon, gave him series scoring honors with six points. Paul Coppo was next up with five while Peterson led the Soo with four.

SHEBOYGAN — Leading by five points (55-50) with less than two minutes to play, the Appleton High School junior varsity basketball team lost to Sheboygan South, 58-57, here Saturday night.

John Cinealis hit from close range with 1:30 to go to start a rampage which saw the hosts coast eight points in a 1-minute stretch. A drive-in goal by Tony Baranducku with 20 seconds to go broke a 56-all tie. He finished with 19 points to pace the victors, now 12-3 on the season and 10-3 in the Fox River Valley JV conference.

Carl Graves, 6-4 junior, led the losers with 22 markers. Trail- ing, 26-16, at the half, Appleton pulled into a 39-all tie after three stanzas.

Mortality Rate Drops Among Senior Citizens

NEW YORK — America's senior citizens have shared substantially in the marked reductions in mortality during recent decades.

Spectacular reductions in mortality among children and young adults have tended to obscure the progress at the older ages, statisticians for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. point out. However, a comparison of 1958's mortality rates at ages 60 and over with those of the 1929-31 period show marked reductions.

Among white men, a reduction was recorded at each age from 60 to 80 years, the decrease averaging about 13 percent. For example, at age 60 the death rate fell from 26.4 per 1,000 to 22.6 in 1958, and at age 75 the rate dropped from 85.3 to 73.3 per 1,000. Women have made considerably greater gains than men, the reductions ranging from as much as 47 percent at age 60, to more than 30 percent up through age 80.

Longevity Increases

Reductions in mortality have been accompanied by increases in longevity for older persons. In 1958 women at age 60 had an expectation of life of 19.2 years, a gain of 3.1 years since 1929-31. At age 80, the remaining life-time averaged 6.4 years in 1958, a gain of 0.8 years. For men, the age 60 figure was 15.7 years in 1958, a gain of one year; and at age 80 life expectancy was 5.8, a gain of half a year.

A reflection of the improvement in mortality and longevity is seen in the increased chances of older people to survive an additional 10 years. For those currently reaching age 65, the chances of living at least another 10 years are almost 3 in 5 for men and 3 in 4 for women. Even at age 75, the chances of survival for 10 years are almost 1 in 3 for men and more than 2 in 5 for women.

"The improved record of longevity at the older ages reflects the remarkable advances in medicine and public health and their widespread application, the expansion of hospital facilities and services, better nutrition, full-living standards."
